Chap. 3

Three Goals:

We'll start by reading and analyzing Shakespeare's Tragedy of Macbeth so that they can still be completing a partial essay. Answer the following prompts, in complete sentences and in the form of point writing. Minimum of 4 thoughtful and detailed responses per response. And how we measure it you would like. Macbeth is a tragedy and paper writing. Macbeth is a tragedy. It's not about the writer's traditional paper. Simply, it's about the technology of your writing response.

Act III

- Have do you think the Macbeths will enjoy their new status as king and queen? Why? What message is Shakespeare trying to convey by this?

The King will most likely feel guilty and regret his decision. I believe he will eventually come around and he will enjoy having all the power. The Queen seems to be very happy to have all the power that comes with her status. It appears that she has already become morally corrupt and will continue to become even more so by the end.

- What does Macbeth mean when he says "It will have blood, they say: blood will have blood" in scene 1?
