Quandaries of Belonging Michael Jackson, 2020-12-15 Those who leave their homelands either under duress or by design will see them in a different light than those who have stayed put Michael Jackson argues that the perspective of the expatriate may be compared with what ethnographers call stranger value In moving between detachment and deep immersion this bifocal perspective implicates a bicultural one which is why Jackson has recourse to M ori traditional knowledge not in order to impose a Eurocentric interpretation on them but to show how cross cultural conversations and interactions can promote new forms of sociality and coexistence Bloomsbury South Peter Simpson, 2016-07-18 Why was it then that out of the hundreds of towns and universities in the English speaking lands scattered over the seven seas only one should at that time act as a focus of creative literature of more than local significance that it should be in Christchurch New Zealand that a group of young writers had appeared who were eager to assimilate the pioneer developments in style and technique that were being made in England and America since the beginning of the century and to give their country a new conscience and spiritual perspective John Lehmann For two decades in Christchurch New Zealand a cast of extraordinary men and women remade the arts Various between 1933 and 1953 Christchurch was the home of Angus and Bensemann and McCahon Curnow and Glover and Baxter the Group the Caxton Press and the Little Theatre Landfall and Tomorrow Ngaio Marsh and Douglas Lilburn It was a city in which painters lived with writers writers promoted musicians in which the arts and artists from different forms were deeply intertwined And it was a city where artists developed a powerful synthesis of European modernist influences and an assertive New Zealand nationalism that gave mid century New Zealand cultural life its particular shape In this book Simpson tells the remarkable story of the rise and fall of this Bloomsbury South and the arts and artists that made it Simpson brings to life the individual talents and their passions but he also takes us inside the scenes that they created together Bethell and her visiting coterie of younger poets Glover and Bensemann's exacting typography at the Caxton Press the yearly exhibitions and aesthetic clashes of the Group McCahon and Baxter's developing friendship the effects of Brasch's patronage Marsh's Shakespearian re-creations at the Little Theatre Simpson recreates a Christchurch we have lost where a group of artists collaborated to create a distinctively New Zealand art which spoke to the condition of their country as it emerged into the modern era
