High School Graduation Ceremony Program:

Clifton Lynne Garvey-Hodge, 2009 The historic town of Clifton Virginia is an enchanting relic of a time past This quarter mile square town of 225 inhabitants has seen little change since the early 20th century Twenty seven miles from the nation s capital this little gem of yesterday is often missed by busy commuters Clifton was originally a Native American hunting ground then a large plantation and eventually became known as Devereux Station named for J H Devereux overseer of the Union army s railroad construction Harrison Otis settled here and built the handsome Clifton Hotel Local hot springs shops lumber industry schools and churches soon created a thriving progressive area of commerce Originally named Clifton Station Clifton was later incorporated in 1902 It was the first community in Fairfax County with a black Baptist church electricity and a high school and it has hosted visitors as varied as Presidents Hayes and Garfield actress Helen Hayes First Lady Nancy Reagan and Sleepless in Seattle author Jeff Arch Clifton has been and is still a gentle picturesque village

Olympia High School Jim Kainber, 2007 In 1907 William Winlock Miller High School known as Olympia High School first opened its doors to the sons and daughters of the South Puget Sound area s pioneer families Three campuses and a century later the school remains a vibrant part of the community and a herald of academic and athletic excellence across the state A walk through time this volume illustrates the pictorial history of the buildings and campuses well known personalities student life and traditions that have left an indelible mark on the history of the region This book touches upon the many institutions that have endured and pays homage to the customs that have been lost or evolved over the decades From the original campus adjacent to the current state capitol to the 43 years on Capitol Way to the dairy farm evolving into a 15 acre complex now home to William Winlock Miller High School this work is the most comprehensive study of the history of Olympia High School to date

Whitlock's Compositions (HC) Charlene Hampton Holloway, RN, 2020-12-31 Whitlock s Compositions A Biographical and Pictorial Story of How Charles D Whitlock Owner of Whitlock s Florist Attempted to Compose the Lives of His Two Daughters HC By Charlene Hampton Holloway RN Whitlock s Compositions tells the true tale of three African American women who did not give up on their chosen careers and obtained their education during the Great Depression through the 1960s Civil Rights era As well as documenting well known African American athletes in the 1960s this inspiring story speaks aloud to the saga African American families face throughout the country The relevancy of this story to today s world post COVID 19 is powerful as author Charlene Hampton Holloway RN recounts how her mother C Thelma Whitlock was nursed back to health as a one year old baby by her mother Parthenia Whitlock during the 1918 Spanish Influenza pandemic Written to inspire today s youth Holloway hopes to encourage those of all cultures to set goals obtain education in their dream careers and never give up

The Physics Queen Omoviekovwa A. Nakireru Ph.D., 2010-04-19 Book Summary Dr Elvira Williams a graduate of Howard University Washington DC started her academic career at North Carolina Central University In 1977 she received a doctorate degree in Physics from Howard University She became the first woman of African descent in the State of North Carolina to earn a doctorate degree in Physics Secondly she became the fourth African American woman in the United States to receive the award Her academic journey started from the country side city of Pollocksville to the heights of academics as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Shaw University Raleigh North Carolina The Commencement Manual ,1957 Including Families and Communities in Urban Education Catherine Hands,Lea Hubbard,2011-04-01 The work of school family and community partnerships is complex and messy and demands a thoughtful and deep investigation Currently parent and community involvement does not draw on school reform and educational change literature and conversely the school change literature often ignores the crucial role that communities play in educational reform This edited volume focuses on structural considerations regarding education and the school communities school level and family culture and the interrelationships between the agency and actions of school personnel family members community citizens and students This book extends the dialogue on school reform by looking at parent and community engagement initiatives as part of the school reform literature The contributors illustrate the negative impact on students and their education when assumptions made by school personnel regarding the organization of education the nature of families and the contributions they should make to their children s education are not challenged Reauthorization of the Carl D.
