

A full-length portrait of Kaiser Wilhelm II of Germany. He is standing, facing slightly to the right but looking towards the viewer. He has a mustache and is wearing a white military-style uniform with a high collar and a wide, ornate gold and blue sash. He is holding a sword in his left hand. The background is a dramatic, cloudy sky with a dark, swirling pattern on the left side.

Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2015 Then They Came for Me Matthew D Hockenos,2018-09-18
First they came for the Communists and I did not speak out Because I was not a Communist Few today recognize the name Martin Niem r though many know his famous confession In Then They Came for Me Matthew Hockenos traces Niem r s evolution from a Nazi supporter to a determined opponent of Hitler revealing him to be a more complicated figure than previously understood Born into a traditionalist Prussian family Niem r welcomed Hitler s rise to power as an opportunity for national rebirth Yet when the regime attempted to seize control of the Protestant Church he helped lead the opposition and was soon arrested After spending the war in concentration camps Niem r emerged a controversial figure to his supporters he was a modern Luther while his critics including President Harry Truman saw him as an unrepentant nationalist A nuanced portrait of courage in the face of evil Then They Came for Me puts the question to us today What would I have done War, Strategy and the Modern State, 1792-1914 Carl Cavanagh Hodge,2016-11-25 This book is a comparative study of military operations conducted by modern states between the French Revolution and World War I It examines the complex relationship between political purpose and strategy on the one hand and the challenge of realizing strategic goals through military operations on the other It argues further that following the experience of the Napoleonic Wars military strength was awarded a primary status in determining the comparative modernity of all the Great Powers that military goals came progressively to distort a sober understanding of the national interest that a genuinely political and diplomatic understanding of national strategy was lost and that these developments collectively rendered the military and political catastrophe of 1914 not inevitable yet probable The Kaiser's Confidante Richard Jay Hutto,2017-01-26 New York City native Mary Esther Lee 1837-1914 first married in 1864 the Prince von Noer brother of the Queen of Denmark and was created a princess in her own right after his death An active philanthropist to Protestant causes she then married Count Alfred von Waldersee whose close ties to the Prussian court made her an intimate friend of Kaiser Wilhelm II and a mentor and valued friend to his young wife Although she preferred to remain in the background Mary s influence caused intense jealousy by those at court who resented her friendship with the kaiser and kaiserin This biography chronicles the remarkable life of an American woman whose wealth and influence enabled her to rise to power in the Prussian royal court Austria 1867-1955 John W. Boyer,2022-09-15 Austria 1867-1955 connects the political history of German speaking provinces of the Habsburg Empire before 1914 Vienna and the Alpine Lands with the history of the Austrian Republic that emerged in 1918 John W Boyer presents the case of modern Austria as a fascinating example of democratic nation building The construction of an Austrian political nation began in 1867 under Habsburg Imperial auspices with the German speaking bourgeois Liberals defining the concept of a political people Volk and giving that Volk a constitution and a liberal legal and parliamentary order to protect their rights against the Crown The decades that followed saw the administrative and judicial institutions of the Liberal state solidified but in the 1880s and 1890s the membership of the Volk exploded to include new social and economic strata from the lower bourgeoisie and the working classes Ethnic identity was not the final structuring principle of everyday politics as it was in the Czech lands Rather social class occupational culture and religion became more prominent variables in the sortition of civic interests exemplified by the emergence of two great ideological parties Christian Socialism and Social Democracy in Vienna in the 1890s The war crisis of 1914 1918 exploded the Empire with the Crown self destructing in the face of military defeat chronic domestic unrest and bitter national partisanship But this crisis also accelerated the emergence of new structures of democratic self governance in the German speaking Austrian lands enshrined in the republican Constitution of 1920 Initial attempts to make this new project of democratic nation building work failed in the 1920s and 1930s culminating in the catastrophe of the 1938 Nazi occupation After 1945 the surviving legatees of the Revolution of 1918 reassembled under the four power Allied occupation which fashioned a shared political culture which proved sufficiently flexible to accommodate intense partisanship resulting by the 1970s in a successful republican system organized under the aegis of elite democratic and corporatist negotiating structures in which the Catholics and Socialists learned to embrace the skills of collective but shared self governance
