Corrections Jeanne B. Stinchcomb, 2011-05-03 Jeanne Stinchcomb's book makes an excellent contribution to the field of corrections serving as a substantial resource for those teaching corrections and as a practical inspiration for those students who will ultimately lead the profession. Stinchcomb carefully crafts a balanced perspective that presents a powerful argument for why corrections is an important and necessary part of our criminal justice system while at the same time cautioning that justice can only be served when corrections is implemented with integrity and held to the highest of professional standards. This book will dare those who care about corrections to move beyond the ease of accepting the status quo to optimistically embracing the greater challenges of implementing a just and effective system of corrections.

Faith E. Lutze Ph.D. Washington State University. Written by a master teacher with over a decade of experience in federal state and local justice agencies this is the most comprehensive yet affordable corrections text on the market.
