to Western culture and literature In fact while authors across stylistic and political divides like Gabriela Mistral Jorge Luis Borges or Gabriel Garc a M rquez see their work as being framed within the confines of a globalized Western literary tradition their relationship rather than epigonal is often subversive Borges and Kafka Bola o and Bloom is a parsing not simply of these authors reactions to a canon but of the notion of canon writ large and the inequities and erasures therein It concludes with a look at the testimonial and autobiographical writings of Rigoberta Mench and Lurgio Gavil n who arguably represent the trajectory of Indigenous testimonial and autobiographical writing during the last forty years noting how their texts represent alternative ways of relating to national and on occasion Western cultures This study is a new attempt to map writers diverse ways of thinking about locality and universality from within and without what is known as the canon

Geddes,2016-04-30 Kafka s Ethics of Interpretation refutes the oft repeated claim made by Kafka s greatest interpreters including Walter Benjamin and Harold Bloom that Kafka sought to evade interpretation of his writings Jennifer L. Geddes shows that this claim about Kafka s deliberate uninterpretability is not only wrong it also misconstrues a central concern of his work Kafka was not trying to avoid or prevent interpretation rather his works are centrally concerned with it Geddes explores the interpretation that takes place within and in response to Kafka s writings and pairs Kafka s works with readings of Sigmund Freud Pierre Bourdieu Tzvetan Todorov Emmanuel Levinas and others She argues that Kafka explores interpretation as a mode of power and violence but also as a mode of engagement with the world and others Kafka she argues challenges us to rethink the ways we read texts engage others and navigate the world through our interpretations of them Senior High Core Collection Raymond W.
