Fourteen Lessons In Yogi Philosophy And Oriental Occultism:

Fourteen Lessons in Yogi Philosophy and Oriental Occultism Yogi Ramacharaka, 2019-06-28 Man is a far more complete being than is generally imagined He has not only a body and a soul but he is a spirit possessing a soul which soul has several vehicles for expression these several vehicles being of different degrees of density the body being the lowest form of expression These different vehicles manifest upon different planes such as the physical plane the astral plane etc all of which will be explained as we proceed The real self is pure spirit a spark of the divine fire This spirit is encased within numerous sheaths which prevent its full expression As man advances in development his consciousness passes from the lower planes to the higher and he becomes more and more aware of his higher nature The spirit contains within it all potentialities and as man progresses he unfolds new powers new qualities into the light The Yogi philosophy teaches that man is composed of seven principles is a sevenfold creature likely to confuse the student The Sanscrit contains terms perfectly fitting each phase of the subject which terms have come into use as the knowledge of the subject grew And such will be the case as the knowledge of this philosophy of the Orient becomes more generally known to the Western people new terms fitting to the subject will spring into general usage and the confusion which now exists will cease We prefer the term Human Magnetism to that Of Animal Magnetism as the latter is generally confounded with some manifestations of Mesmerism But this Human Magnetism is not the sole property of Man for the lower animals possess it in a degree There is this difference however Man is able to consciously direct it by his will and through his Thought while the lower animals use it more or less unconsciously and without intellectual aid or under control of the Will Both the lower animals and man constantly throw off this magnetism or pranic energy unconsciously but the developed or psychically educated man has the force under his control and can either repress it to a great extent or throw off greatly increased quantities of it and may also direct it to any special
