A Fraction of the Whole Steve Toltz, 2008-02-12 Meet the Deans The fact is the whole of Australia despises my father more than any other man just as they adore my uncle more than any other man I might as well set the story straight about both of them Heroes or Criminals Crackpots or Visionaries Families or Enemies Anyway you know how it is Every family has a story like this one Most of his life Jasper Dean couldn't decide whether to pity hate love or murder his certifiably paranoid father Martin a man who overanalyzed anything and everything and imparted his self garnered wisdom to his only son But now that Martin is dead Jasper can fully reflect on the crackpot who raised him in intellectual captivity and what he realizes is that for all its lunacy theirs was a grand adventure As he recollects the events that led to his father's demise Jasper recounts a boyhood of outrageous schemes and shocking discoveries about his infamous outlaw uncle Terry his mysteriously absent European mother and Martin's constant losing battle to make a lasting mark on the world he so disdains It's a story that takes them from the Australian bush to the cafes of bohemian Paris from the Thai jungle to strip clubs asylums labyrinths and criminal lairs and from the highs of first love to the lows of failed ambition The result is a rollicking rollercoaster ride from obscurity to infamy and the moving memorable story of a father and son whose spiritual symmetry transcends all their many shortcomings A Fraction of the Whole by Steve Toltz

Cecilia Dowling, 2010 A Fraction of the Whole Steve Toltz, 2008 Meet the Deans The fact is the whole of Australia despises my father more than any other man just as they adore my uncle more than any other man I might as well set the story straight about both of them Heroes or criminals Crackpots of visionaries Relatives or enemies It's a simple family story From the New South Wales bush to bohemian Paris from sports fields to strip clubs from the jungles of Thailand to a leaky boat in the Pacific A Fraction of the Whole follows the Deans on their freewheeling scathingly funny and finally deepy moving quest to leave their mark on the world Visit the website here A Fraction of the Whole Steve Toltz, 2010-04-30 With rights sold around the world this irreverent comic adventure spanning three continents is poised to be one of the most talked about fiction debuts of the year A Fraction of the Whole marks the arrival of an ambitious new writer who deftly mixes humour surprise and astute observations of the human condition to create a novel that entertains scandalizes and enlightens Martin Dean spent his entire life analyzing absolutely everything from the benefits of suicide to the virtues of strip clubs versus brothels Now that he's dead his son Jasper can fully reflect on the man who raised him in intellectual captivity As he recollects the extraordinary events that led to his father's demise Jasper recounts a boyhood of outrageous schemes and shocking discoveries about his infamous and long dead criminal uncle his tortured and mysteriously absent European mother and Martin's constant losing battle to make a lasting impression on the world It's a story that takes them from the Australian bush to the cafes of bohemian Paris from the Thai jungle to labyrinths mental hospitals and criminal lairs from the highs of first love to the lows of rejection and failed ambition The result is an uproarious indictment of the ridiculousness of the modern world and its mores and the moving memorable story of a father and son whose spiritual symmetry transcends all their many shortcomings I spent the next day staring into empty space I get a lot of joy out of air and if sunlight hits the floating specs of dust so you see the whirling dance of atoms so much the better During the day Dad breezed in and out of my room and clicked his tongue which in our family meant You re an idiot In the afternoon he came back in with a loaded grin He had a brilliant idea and couldn t wait to tell me about it It had suddenly occurred to him to throw me out of the house and what did I think of his brainwave I told him I was concerned about him eating all his meals alone because the clinking of cutlery on a plate echoing through an empty house is one of the top five depressing noises of all time from A Fraction of the Whole
