Frankenstein's Revenge - a play full of shifty manoeuvres and time travel. Michelle Barber,2012-07-09 Dr Frankenstein is shocked when his fiancée Elizabeth visits him suddenly She is not the sweet quiet girl he expects to spend the rest of his life with but a worse for wear corpse The real shock comes however when she gives him an ultimatum She announces that he is not the world's greatest scientist but a character in a book that made a monster He treated the monster so badly it killed their family and friends including her Elizabeth warns Victor that he must love the monster like a son to change the story otherwise they will have no future together Frankenstein is adamant that if he is only a character in the book then everything that has happened is the fault of the author He believes that he can force Mary Shelley to write that he creates a perfect human being instead of a monster then Elizabeth will be his forever His servant Toadstool has ulterior motives and eggs Frankenstein on to get his revenge on Mary Shelley Can Frankenstein force Mary Shelley to re write her novel School charged with political rhetoric theatre and socially engaged art set or taking place on estates takes on a new potency Mainstream theatre works examined include Rita Sue and Bob Too and A State Affair at the Soho Theatre Port at the National Theatre and DenMarked at the Battersea Arts Centre The book also explores the National Youth Theatre's Slick and Roger Hiorns Seizure as well as community based and resident led performances by Fourthland Jordan McKenzie Fugitive Images and Jane English

Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre Tony McCaffrey, 2023-04-26 Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre offers unique insight into the question of voice in learning disabled theatre and what is gained and lost in making performance It is grounded in the author's 18 years of making theatre with Different Light Theatre company in Christchurch New Zealand and includes contributions from the artists themselves This book draws on an extensive archive of performer interviews recordings of rehearsal processes and informal logs of travelling together and sharing experience These accounts engage with the practical aesthetics of theatre making as well as their much wider ethical and political implications relevant to any collaborative process seeking to represent the under or unrepresented Giving and Taking Voice in Learning Disabled Theatre asks how care and support can be tempered with artistic challenge and rigour and presents a case for how listening learning disabled artists to speech encourages attunement to indigenous knowledge and the cries of the planet in the current socio ecological crisis This is a vital and valuable book for anyone interested in learning disabled theatre either as a performer director dramaturg critic or spectator Media Literacy in Schools Andrew Burn, James Durran, 2007-05-22 Includes CD Rom Intriguing and timely I whole heartedly recommend this text to teacher educators and their trainees certainly across English and the Arts but arguably to all engaged in considering critical pedagogy across the curriculum ESCalate This is a very timely book firmly rooted in authentic albeit visionary classroom practice that has much to offer to teachers of all subjects but should be particularly welcomed by English and media colleagues English Drama Media Heaving with ideas outstanding lesson ideas and inspiring work from students The Secondary English Magazine I really enjoyed working my way through this book The book is accompanied by a DVD organised into chapters which correspond to those in the book and it was great to see the ideas and schemes referred to in the text come alive The schemes have been included which makes it even easier to adapt the work to fit the technology and resources available in your own school All teachers of media would benefit from browsing this book Learning Teaching Update This book is for secondary English Media and ICT teachers who want to develop practical media work and media literacy across the curriculum It is ideal for secondary English and media teachers and curriculum leaders in secondary schools as well as ICT teachers and co ordinators PCGE English Media students and researchers working on media English and ICT projects A range of case studies are presented which show how digital media work from video editing to computer game authoring can be developed in schools drawing on children s own cultural knowledge It also shows the benefits of such projects in terms of learning outcomes and increased self esteem for a range of learners The book comes with a CD Rom of children s work from the various case study projects exhibiting the high standard of moving image work animations and computer games that can be produced with the help of this text With an integrated approach drawing together practice theory and research the book will help teachers to plan for and develop their own media projects in school It offers advice on integrating media work across the curriculum in English and media classes as well as in ICT and citizenship and presents a model of progression which shows how learning can develop from the first years of secondary school through to GCSE level In line with current government initiatives to open up curriculum boundaries the book shows how to plan for longer periods of time for these projects The Piscator Notebook Judith Malina, 2012-06-14 Theater legend Malina has written one of the most interesting studies of the avant garde theatrical movement published in the last several years CHOICE Judith Malina and The Living Theatre have been icons of political theatre for over six decades What few realise is that she originally studied under one of the giants of twentieth century culture Erwin Piscator in his Dramatic Workshop at The New School in New York Piscator founded the Workshop after emigrating to New York having collaborated with Brecht to create epic theatre in Germany The Piscator Notebook documents Malina's intensive and idiosyncratic training at Piscator's school. Part diary, part theatrical treatise, this unique and inspiring volume combines complete transcriptions of Malina's diaries from her time as a student at the Dramatic Workshop as well as reproductions of various of Piscator's syllabi and teaching materials, notes on Malina's teachers, fellow students including Marlon Brando and Tennessee Williams, and New School productions. Studies of Piscator's process and influence, along with a new essay on the relationship between his teaching, Malina's work with the Living Theatre, and The Ongoing Epic, an introduction by performance pioneer Richard Schechner, The Piscator Notebook is a compelling record of the genealogy of political theatre practice in the early 20th Century from Europe to the US. But it is also a stunningly personal reflection on the pleasures and challenges of learning about theatre, charged with essential insights for the student and teacher, actor and director. Piscator is the greatest theatre man of our time. Bertolt Brecht.
