Critical Translation Studies

Douglas Robinson, 2017-02-17 This book offers an introduction for Translation Studies TS scholars to Critical Translation Studies CTS a cultural studies approach to the study of translation spearheaded by Sakai Naoki and Lydia H Liu with an implicit focus on translation as a social practice shaped by power relations in society The central claim in CTS is that translators help condition what TS scholars take to be the primal scene of translation two languages two language communities with the translator as mediator According to Sakai intralingual translation is primal we are all foreigners to each other making every address to another heterolingual thus a form of translation and it is the order that these acts of translation bring to communication that begins to generate the two separate languages scenario CTS is dedicated to the historicization of the social relations that create that scenario In three sets of Critical Theses on Translation the book outlines and explains and partly critiques the CTS approach in five interspersed chapters the book delves more deeply into CTS with an eye to making it do work that will be useful to TS scholars Agatha Christie's The Mysterious Affair at Styles in German and Dutch Translation Marjolijn Storm, 2016-01-12 Agatha Christie is one of the most popular and most translated authors of all time Yet there is little academic work on her writing This book sets out to rectify this No matter where in the world you are Hercule Poirot is a name that conjures up certain associations The detailed analysis of the original text three German and two Dutch translations of The Mysterious Affair at Styles however shows that his depiction differs immensely between the individual texts In the course of this book reasons for these differences are found via the analysis of the shifts of status of Agatha Christie as an author of detective fiction and of translations from English in Germany and the Netherlands During this exploration the discovery will be made that when translated escapist literature such as Christie's detective fiction actually becomes a highly political affair Fields of Sense Markus Gabriel, 2015-01-14 Markus Gabriel proposes a radical form of ontological pluralism that divorces ontology from metaphysics understood as the most fundamental theory of absolutely everything the world He argues that the concept of existence is incompatible with the exist Jewish Encounters with Buddhism in German Culture Sebastian Musch, 2019-10-10 In Germany at the turn of the century Buddhism transformed from an obscure topic of interest to only a few misfit scholars into a cultural phenomenon Many of the foremost authors of the period were profoundly influenced by this rapid rise of Buddhism among them some of the best known names in the German Jewish canon Sebastian Musch excavates this neglected dimension of German Jewish identity drawing on philosophical treatises novels essays diaries and letters to trace the history of Jewish Buddhist encounters up to the start of the Second World War Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber Leo Baeck Theodor Lessing Jakob Wassermann Walter Hasenclever and Lion Feuchtwanger are featured alongside other lesser known figures like Paul Cohen Portheim and Walter Tausk As Musch shows when these thinkers wrote about Buddhism they were also negotiating their own Jewishness Women in German Yearbook Women in German Yearbook, 2001-01-01 Women in German Yearbook is a refereed publication that presents a wide range of feminist approaches to all aspects of German literary cultural and language studies including pedagogy Each issue contains critical studies on the work history life literature and arts of women in the German speaking world reflecting the interdisciplinary perspectives that inform feminist Germanistik This year s volume focuses on German literature and culture in the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Introductory Studies in German

Literature Richard Hochdoerfer, 1904 Single Combat and Warfare in German Literature of the High Middle Ages Rachel E. Kellett, 2008 Combat is one of the central themes of Middle High German narrative literature and of significant interest to medievalists in general Nevertheless few studies to date have attempted a detailed analysis of the depiction of combat in literary texts Rachel Kellett uses an inclusive approach to the details of combat descriptions in order to analyse minutely the scenes of single combat and battle presented in two major narrative works by Der Stricker the epic Karl der Grosse and the Arthurian romance Daniel von dem Bluhenden Tal written between 1220 and 1250 The author compares these works with a wide range of other texts both French and German and investigates the relationship between Stricker s depiction of combat and that found in the works of Hartmann von Aue and Wolfram von Eschenbach among others She also draws on historical research into medieval warfare tournament and the tradition of the judicial combat which adds valuable depth to her analysis of literary texts Overall this study provides new insights into the depiction of combat in Middle High German literature as a whole while at the same time highlighting hitherto unnoticed aspects of the writings of Der Stricker as an individual author and bringing a new perspective on the ambiguous role played by combat in the equally ambiguous Daniel von dem Bluhenden Tal
