- According to Zucker, et al, (2009) there is a “dearth of studies on the use of e-books with struggling readers” (p.77).
- Zucker, et al, (2009) in considering the effectiveness of e-books for different profiles of readers, the extant literature provides little information for struggling readers or children diagnosed with reading disabilities because no experimental studies addressed the population
- Larson (2010) “The lack of research published on the topic hinders the efforts made by educators and administrators who wish to integrate digital texts into their current curricula or school libraries
