Studies Curriculum Resource Handbook, 1992      Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2008-09-17 The world's cultures and their forms of creation, presentation and preservation are deeply affected by globalization in ways that are inadequately documented and understood. The Cultures and Globalization series is designed to fill this void in our knowledge. In this series, leading experts and emerging scholars track cultural trends connected to globalization throughout the world, resulting in a powerful analytic tool kit that encompasses the transnational flows and scapes of contemporary cultures. Each volume presents data on cultural phenomena through colourful, innovative information graphics to give a quantitative portrait of the cultural dimensions and contours of globalization. This second volume, The Cultural Economy, analyses the dynamic relationship in which culture is part of the process of economic change that in turn changes the conditions of culture. It brings together perspectives from different disciplines to examine such critical issues as the production of cultural goods and services and the patterns of economic globalization; the relationship between the commodification of the cultural economy and the aesthetic realm; current and emerging organizational forms for the investment, production, distribution and consumption of cultural goods and services; the complex relations between creators, producers, distributors and consumers of culture; the policy implications of a globalizing cultural economy. By demonstrating empirically how the cultural industries interact with globalization, this volume will provide students of contemporary culture with a unique, indispensable reference tool.

Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education Liz Jackson, 2014-04-03 Winner of Philosophy of Education Society of Australasia PESA's inaugural PESA Book Awards in 2015 and The University of Hong Kong Research Output Prize for Education 2014-15 Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education explores the complex interface that exists between U.S. school curriculum, teaching practice about religion in public schools, societal and teacher attitudes toward Islam and Muslims, and multiculturalism as a framework for meeting the needs of minority group students. It presents multiculturalism as a concept that needs to be rethought and reformulated in the interest of creating a more democratic, inclusive and informed society. Islam is an under-considered religion in American education due in part to the fact that Muslims represent a very small minority of the population today, less than 1%. However, this group faces a crucial challenge of representation in United States society as a whole as well as in its schools. Muslims in the United States are impacted by ignorance that news and opinion polls have demonstrated is widespread among the public. In the last few decades, U.S. citizens who do not have a balanced, fair and accurate view of Islam can make a variety of decisions in the voting booth, in job hiring and within their small-scale but important personal networks and spheres of influence that make a very negative impact on Muslims in the United States. This book presents new information that has implications for curricula.

religious education and multicultural education today examining the unique case of Islam in U S education over the last 20 years Chapters include Perspectives on Multicultural Education 9 11 the Media and the New Need to Know Islam and Muslims in Public Schools Blazing a Path for Intercultural Education This book is an essential resource for professors researchers and teachers of social studies particularly those involved with multicultural issues critical and sociocultural analysis of education and schools as well as interdisciplinary scholars and students in anthropology and education
