I am the earth

I am the earth,
I am your home,
But you destroy,
My skin and bone,
But I forgive,
And I forget,
And let you live,
But I regret.

Do you realise,
I am your only hope,
So don't stand around and mope,
I need saving,
It's up to you,
This is what I need you to do.

No more plastic,
And no more waste,
Because I am fading at a fast pace,
I need love,
And I need care
Because you are polluting my air....

Pytel, Mel Black, Vidushi Anand, V S Balakrishnan, Helen Lemus, Brooke Stanicki, Joey Tabak, Mollie LeMasters, Andrew Jones, Maryam Barrie, Martin H. Samuel, Dr. Asa Don Brown, Russell Davis, Ashleigh Cattermole, 2022-07-12 This anthology of poems is an emotional exploration of climate change and its underlying attitudes. The poems lie at the intersection of climate change due to global warming and inner transformation. The poems are meaningful, powerful, and thought provoking. The reader goes on a journey from despair and chaos ending in a place of quiet optimism. This is a book for the sensitive, the conscious, the eco warriors and the introspective nature lovers among us. Intermixing essays with poetry and art, this book is both a balm and a guide for knowing and holding what has been done to the world while bolstering our resolve never to give up on one another or our collective future. The scope of the poems goes far beyond Connecticut to the whole ecosystem we humans share. With praise and wonder and sometimes with grief or anger, the poems in this collection pay close attention to our planet and its inhabitants. In a time of climate crisis, the poems in this anthology ask everyone to wake up to the earth and cherish it.

Feeling the Pressure Paul Munden, 2008. Statements on the science impacts and challenges of climate change are placed intermittently throughout the book, intermingled with the poetry and act as yardsticks against which to gauge the poems.

Whispers from a Warming Earth Koli Fatai, 2023-08-19. We all live in an earth that is desperately crying out for survival. Climate change is a global issue and the rising sea level and alarming global warming are issues we all must come together to resolve. Climate change issues are important problems for all of us and this book seeks to further highlight the urgent call for humanity to take bold actions.

Climate Change Poetry Stefan Nicholson, 2020-02-19. This book presents my summary on climate change and some poems written with that in mind. All I ask is for some time about 15 minutes unless you decide that your interest lies elsewhere. Time is precious and so is all life on Earth. The climate is always changing. How do we know? What have we learnt? We all bear witness to the four seasons varying in severity depending on where you live and how you, your city and farming community have treated the environment. Nature is neither forgiving or forgetful. Just ask the Mesopotamians, Aztecs, Incas, Babylonians and now modern industrial humans; all have followed the same path to reducing their environment to dust by overpopulation, deforestation, wars and greed. Human civilisations all follow a familiar destructive pattern. We always seem to be at war with someone else as if we enjoy taking what is not ours. Hopefully, this book will raise awareness and persuade the reader to act now for future generations.

Open Your Eyes: an Anthology on Climate Change: Poetry and Prose Vinita Agrawal, 2020-08-27. Open your Eyes, an anthology on climate change, investigates human relationships with the natural world. Each poem/prose offers a unique perspective on the environment in its own style. Each contributor has interpreted the theme broadly, exploring the issue in different ways: physical, spiritual or emotional, through their own unique cultural lens. As climate change continues to wreak havoc on populations across the globe, writers are fighting back with words that jolt, motivate and in the best of all, provoke one to act. July 2019 was officially the hottest month on Earth since records began. Scientists are arguing that we are out of the Holocene era, the epoch that encompasses the last ten thousand years and entering a new age the Anthropocene where humanity is the main force shaping the planet and nature can no longer be regarded as natural Open your Eyes is perhaps the best way to bring this new age into perspective The collection has contributions from some of the best poets writing today both nationally and internationally Global Warming ,2020-10-10 Collection of poems on a topic becoming a reality Global Warming Verses Issoufou Ouattara,2009-04-07 In this book I plead for the reduction or elimination of the carbon dioxide which is in the air I also make a case against the problem of water pollution deforestation and the extinction of some animals My central argument is that the earth is a mother for humankind a mother that should be loved and cherished I hope that the book gains the compassion of individuals leaders businesses cities and communities in favor of the climate change crisis As for the content though a book of poetry I still built my work on the research of experts in the field I hope that my readers will enjoy these poems or songs of advocacy for the environment and take action in favor of Mother Earth Global Warming Verses Tome1 Issoufou Ouattara,2009-04-07 In this book I plead for the reduction or elimination of the carbon dioxide which is in the air I also make a case against the problem of water pollution deforestation and the extinction of some animals My central argument is that the earth is a mother for humankind a mother that should be loved and cherished I hope that the book gains the compassion of individuals leaders businesses cities and communities in favor of the climate change crisis As for the content though a book of poetry I still built my work on the research of experts in the field I hope that my readers will enjoy these poems or songs of advocacy for the environment and take action in favor of Mother Earth
