Klan-Destine Relationships Daryl Davis, 2011-12 Driven by the need to understand those who despise him because of the color of his skin Daryl Davis sets his sights on meeting Klan members to get to the heart of their hate With rare courage Davis exposes his own anger along with his compassion in his attempt to unearth the roots of prejudice and foster harmony between the races

Good White People Shannon Sullivan, 2014-05-15 Argues for the necessity of a new ethos for middle class white anti racism Building on her book Revealing Whiteness Shannon Sullivan identifies a constellation of attitudes common among well meaning white liberals that she sums up as white middle class goodness an orientation she critiques for being more concerned with establishing anti racist bona fides than with confronting systematic racism and privilege Sullivan untangles the complex relationships between class and race in contemporary white identity and outlines four ways this orientation is expressed each serving to establish one's lack of racism the denigration of lower class white people as responsible for ongoing white racism the demonization of antebellum slaveholders an emphasis on colorblindness especially in the context of white childrearing and the cultivation of attitudes of white guilt shame and betrayal To move beyond these distancing strategies Sullivan argues white people need a new ethos that acknowledges and transforms their whiteness in the pursuit of racial justice rather than seeking a self righteous distance from it

Feminist Interpretations of John Dewey Charlene Haddock Seigfried, 2010-11-01 This is the first collection of essays to evaluate John Dewey's pragmatist philosophy from a feminist perspective The variety of feminist interpretations offered here ranges from Jane Addams's praise for his collegial efforts to resolve the problems of the inner city to contemporary comparisons of his approach with Addams's own critique of capitalism as patriarchal In between are essays assessing Dewey's contributions to feminist theory and practice both in his lifetime and in regard to contemporary feminist approaches to education subjectivity objectivity and truth and social and political philosophy At a time when feminists are questioning and developing alternatives to the scientific value free inquiry advocated by logical positivism the myth of detached observation informing the epistemological turn rationalistic ethics and the model of an unattached nonrelational subject this book reminds us of Dewey's early and passionate opposition to the same assumptions and his reconstruction of philosophy as a method of moral and political diagnoses and prognosis It has often been remarked that Dewey's pragmatism provides a genuine alternative to the usual masculinist biases of Western philosophy and the various essays in this book develop this claim more extensively Contributors besides the editor are Jane Addams Ana M Mart nez Alem n Paula Droege Marilyn Fischer Eugenie Gatens Robinson Judith M Green Lisa Heldke Ellen Condliffe Lagemann Erin McKenna Marjorie C Miller Elizabeth Kamarck Minnich and Shannon Sullivan
