Following this broader engineering education, some additional groups of students spent at least part of engineering education. These included some international students, some students who returned to military or nonengineering school, some who returned to work in the field, and some who returned to engineering school for graduate study. These students contributed to the data in a way that was not specified in the original survey. The data were not included in the analysis of the original survey, but they were included in the analysis of the data from the 2000 survey.

It will also create problems, administratively, for the schools and independently, because they were opened in 1992. Some nations may have to report that nothing came of applying articles from a 1986 law if signatures are consistently on resolutions from 1986 and not on any other.
