Responsibilities of Everyday Bystanders Stephen L. Esquith,2011-02-28 In a world where every person is exposed daily through the mass media to images of violence and suffering as most dramatically exemplified in recent years by the ongoing tragedy in Darfur the question naturally arises What responsibilities do we as bystanders to such social injustice bear in holding accountable those who have created the conditions for this suffering And what is our own complicity in the continuance of such violence it involves settling accounts as well as recognizing our own complicity even as bystanders

Resources in Education ,1999-04 African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene,Michael Baffoe,2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America s diverse classrooms This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented The book explores how educators literacy educators learners activists policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education traditional oral literature urban education children s literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development Consequently the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers In summary this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia Rethinking Mathematics Eric Gutstein,Bob Peterson,2005 In this unique collection more than 30 articles show how to weave social justice issues throughout the mathematics curriculum as well as how to integrate mathematics into other curricular areas Rethinking Mathematics offers teaching ideas lesson plans and reflections by practitioners and mathematics educators This is real world math math that helps students analyze problems as they gain essential academic skills This book offers hope and guidance for teachers to enliven and strengthen their math teaching It will deepen students understanding of society and help prepare them to be critical active participants in a democracy

Blending theory and practice this is the only resource of its kind Gender Equity Right from the Start: Instructional activities for teacher educators in mathematics, science, and technology Jo Shuchat Sanders, Janice Koch, Josephine Urso, 1997 For instructors contains general info about gender equity in math science and technology education teaching activities learning assessment materials and suggestions for action research projects to be done by students Change Is Gonna Come Patricia A. Edwards, Gwendolyn Thompson McMillon, Jennifer D. Turner, 2015-04-17 While many books decry the crisis in the schooling of African American children they are often disconnected from the lived experiences and work of classroom teachers and principals In this book the authors look back to move forward providing specific practices that K 12 literacy educators can use to transform their schools The text addresses four major debates the fight for access to literacy supports and roadblocks to success best practices theories and perspectives on teaching African American students and the role of African American families in the literacy lives of their children Throughout the authors highlight the valuable lessons learned from the past and include real stories from their own diverse family histories and experiences as teachers parents and community members
