Weeks,2022-07-12 The television industry is changing and with it the small screen s potential to engage in debate and present valuable representations of American history Founded in 1972 HBO has been at the forefront of these changes leading the way for many network cable and streaming services into the post network era Despite this most scholarship has been dedicated to analyzing historical feature films and documentary films leaving TV and the long form drama hungry for coverage In History by HBO Televising the American Past Rebecca Weeks fills the gap in this area of media studies and defends the historiographic power of long form dramas By focusing on this change and its effects History by HBO outlines how history is crafted on television and the diverse forms it can take Weeks examines the capabilities of the long form serial for engaging with historical stories insisting that the shift away from the network model and toward narrowcasting has enabled challenging histories to thrive in home settings As an examination of HBO s unique structure for producing quality historical dramas Weeks provides four case studies of HBO series set during different periods of United States history Band of Brothers 2001 Deadwood 2004 2007 Boardwalk Empire 2012 2014 and Treme 2010 2013 In each case HBO s lack of advertiser influence commitment to creative freedom and generous budgets continue to draw and retain talent who want to tell historical stories Balancing historical and film theories in her assessment of the roles of mise en sc ne characterization narrative complexity and sound in the production of effective historical dramas Weeks evaluation acts as an ode to the most recent Golden Age of TV as well as a critical look at the relationship between entertainment media and collective memory

Encountering the Other Laura Duhan-Kaplan,Harry O. Maier,2020-04-17 How do religious traditions create strangers and neighbors How do they construct otherness Or instead work to overcome it In this exciting collection of interdisciplinary essays scholars and activists from various traditions explore these questions Through legal and media studies they reveal how we see religious others They show that Jewish Christian Islamic and Sikh texts frame others in open ended ways Conflict resolution experts and Hindu teachers they explain draw on a shared positive psychology Jewish mystics and Christian contemplatives use powerful tools of compassionate perception Finally the authors explain how Christian theology can help teach respectful views of difference They are not afraid to discuss how religious groups have alienated one another But together they choose to draw positive lessons about future cooperation

Memory and Movies John Seamon, 2024-10-29 How popular films from Memento to Slumdog Millionaire can help us understand how memory works In the movie Slumdog Millionaire the childhood memories of a young game show contestant trigger his correct answers In Memento the amnesiac hero uses tattoos as memory aids In Away from Her an older woman suffering from dementia no longer remembers who her husband is These are compelling films that tell affecting stories about the human condition But what can these movies teach us about memory In this book John Seamon shows how examining the treatment of memory in popular movies can shed new light on how human memory works After explaining that memory is actually a diverse collection of independent systems Seamon uses examples from movies to offer an accessible nontechnical description of what science knows about memory function and dysfunction In a series of lively encounters with numerous popular films he draws on Life of Pi and Avatar for example to explain working memory used for short term retention He describes the process of long term memory with examples from such films as Cast Away and Groundhog Day The Return of Martin Guerre among other movies informs his account of how we recognize people the effect of emotion on autobiographical memory is illustrated by The Kite Runner Titanic and other films movies including Born on the Fourth of July and Rachel Getting Married illustrate the complex pain of traumatic memories Seamon shows us that movies rarely get amnesia right often using strategically timed blows to the protagonist's head as a way to turn memory off and then on again as in Desperately Seeking Susan Finally he uses movies including On Golden Pond and Amour to describe the memory loss that often accompanies aging while highlighting effective ways to maintain memory function

Bodies in Pain Tarja Laine, 2017-04 The films of Darren Aronofsky invite emotional engagement by means of affective resonance between the film and the spectator's lived body Aronofsky's films which include a rich range of production from Requiem for a Dream to Black Swan are often considered cerebral because they explore topics like mathematics madness hallucinations obsessions social anxiety addiction psychosis schizophrenia and neuroscience Yet this interest in intelligence and mental processes is deeply embedded in the operations of the body shared with the spectator by means of a distinctively corporeal audiovisual style Bodies in Pain looks at how Aronofsky's films engage the spectator in an affective form of viewing that involves all the senses ultimately engendering a process of self reflection through their emotional dynamics

McLuhan's Galaxies: Science Fiction Film Aesthetics in Light of Marshall McLuhan's Thought Artur Skweres,2019-01-17 This groundbreaking book uses observations made by Marshall McLuhan to analyze the aesthetics of science fiction films treating them as visual metaphors or probes into the new reality dominated by electronic media it considers the relations between the senses and sensuality in Blade Runner the visually tactile character of the film and the status of replicants as humanity s new clothes it analyzes the mixture of Eastern and Western aesthetics in Star Wars analyzing Darth Vader as a combination of the literate and the tribal mindset it discusses the failure of visual society presented in the Terminator and Alien franchises the rekindling of horror vacui tribalism and the desire to obliterate the past as a result of the simultaneity of the acoustic space finally the book discusses the Matrix trilogy and Avatar as being deeply related in terms of the growing importance of tactility easternization tribalization as well as connectivity and the implosion of human civilization

Brill's Companion to Ancient Greek and Roman Warfare on Film ,2023-12-18 Brill s Companion to Ancient Greek and Roman Warfare on Film is the first volume exclusively dedicated to the study of a theme that informs virtually every reimagining of the classical world on the big screen armed conflict Through a vast array of case studies from the silent era to recent years the collection traces cinema s enduring fascination with battles and violence in antiquity and explores the reasons both synchronic and diachronic for the central place that war occupies in celluloid Greece and Rome Situating films in their artistic economic and sociopolitical context the essays cast light on the industrial mechanisms through which the ancient battlefield is refashioned in cinema and investigate why the medium adopts a revisionist approach to textual and visual sources

Mediating Indianness Cathy Covell Waegner, 2015-02-01 Mediating Indianness investigates a wide range of media including print film theater ritual dance music recorded interviews photography and treaty rhetoric that have been used in exploitative informative educative sustaining protesting or entertaining ways to negotiate Native American identities and images The contributors to this collection are Native American and European scholars whose initial findings were presented or performed in a four panel format at the 2012 MESEA Society for Multi Ethnic Studies Europe and the Americas conference in Barcelona The selection of the term Indianness is deliberate It points to the intricate construction of ethnicity as filtered through media despite frequent assertions of authenticity From William Buffalo Bill Cody's claim extravagantly advertised on both sides of the Atlantic that he was staging true to life scenes from Indian life in his Wild West shows to contemporary Native hip hop artist Quetzal's announcement that his songs tell his people's own history and draw on their true culture media of all types has served to promote disparate agendas claiming legitimacy This volume does not shy away from the issue of evaluation and how it is only tangential to medial artificiality As evidenced in this collection the vibrant ever transforming future of Native peoples is located within a complex intersection of cultural influences said Susan Power author of Sacred Wilderness
