Sessional Papers Ontario. Legislative Assembly,1909      Dr. Haggard's Disease Patrick McGrath,2015-08-18 A stormy tale of obsession this is a haunting portrayal of a man broken by passion Library Journal Dr Edward Haggard is a lonely pain racked romantic standing at the window of his house on the edge of a cliff watching as the clouds of war draw near and reflecting on the nature of love death medicine war but most of all on the wife of the senior pathologist and the few brief months of bliss they shared Shortly after the outbreak of World War II a fighter pilot appears in Dr Haggard s surgery reawakening memories of the single grand passion of Haggard s life For this young man is the son of the woman Haggard loved and as the doctor becomes more and more intrigued by the bizarre changes occurring in his new patient s body his old passion gives way to a fresh one a passion altogether odder and darker than the first In true gothic fashion Patrick McGrath brings to his narration of a doomed love affair and bizarre aftermath an acute erotic intensity portraying a man whose disease is passion disease that can exalt a man but can also destroy him      The Medical Fortnightly ,1903

The City Record New York (N.Y.),1873      Remains of the Everyday Joshua Goldstein,2020-12-22 Remains of the Everyday traces the changing material culture and industrial ecology of China through the lens of recycling Over the last century waste recovery and secondhand goods markets have been integral to Beijing s economic functioning and cultural identity and acts of recycling have figured centrally in the ideological imagination of modernity and citizenship On the one hand the Chinese state has repeatedly promoted acts of voluntary recycling as exemplary of conscientious citizenship On the other informal recycling networks from the night soil carriers of the Republican era to the collectors of plastic and cardboard in Beijing's neighborhoods today have been represented as undisciplined polluting and technologically primitive due to the municipal government's failure to control them. The result, Joshua Goldstein argues, is the repeatedly reinscribed exclusion of waste workers from formations of modern urban citizenship as well as the intrinsic liminality of recycling itself as an economic process.

Delphi Complete Works of Nevil Shute (Illustrated) Nevil Shute, 2020-06-11 Nevil Shute was an English novelist and aeronautical engineer who spent his later years living in Australia. His novels are written in a simple, highly readable style with clearly delineated plots. An enduring theme of his novels is the dignity of work spanning all classes. His famous novel On the Beach (1957) reflects his pessimism for humanity in the atomic age, while A Town like Alice (1950) tackles themes of emigration and racism as the heroine seeks economic prosperity in a disadvantaged outback community. Several of Shute's novels explore the boundary between accepted science and rational belief on the one hand and mystical or paranormal possibilities on the other. The author is noted for his unique talent of weaving his technical knowledge of engineering into the texture of his narratives. For the first time in publishing history, this eBook presents Shute's complete works with numerous illustrations, rare texts, informative introductions, and the usual Delphi bonus material. Version 1. Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Shute's life and works. Concise introductions to the novels and other texts. All 23 novels with individual contents tables.
