Full Metal Jacket:

Stanley Kubrick's "Full Metal Jacket". Portrayal of the Vietnam War Patrick Spieß, 2013-12-27 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1 3 Martin Luther University language English abstract The Vietnam War was a traumatic event of the recent American history Due to harsh criticism both at home and abroad of the American involvement in Vietnam the film industry struggled to produce notable Vietnam War films during the conflict Only in the late 1970s Hollywood came up with significant films that were trying to come to terms with the past Down to the present day the film industry has produced a number of Vietnam War films What is special about these films is that they show a high level of diversity In this seminar paper I will examine how the Vietnam War is portrayed in Full Metal Jacket and outline its context in relation with other filmic presentations of the Vietnam War In particular I will focus on the drafting and military drill of young men as well as on the effects that the drill and the war itself had on recruits I will first introduce the historical event the film is dealing with and outline its filmic presentations and film historical context Then I will briefly introduce the film and provide information regarding its historical context The central question of this paper is which specific perspective is illustrated in Full Metal Jacket and to what extent the film can be classified along other Vietnam War films In resuming thoughts I will first establish what stance Full Metal Jacket takes towards the Vietnam War and how this perspective is created Finally I will introduce selected scenes and examine the method of the film in portraying the Vietnam War

Full Metal Jacket [videorecording]., 2009 Full Metal Jacket Diary Matthew Modine, 2005 Mirroring his part as a Marine Corp journalist Modine recounts through words and photographs his experiences working with Stanley Kubrick on the film Full Metal Jacket

Defeated Masculinity Raya Morag, 2009 The burgeoning field of trauma and cinema is an exciting development within contemporary trauma studies The author of this book describes the complex relationship between cinema and the trauma of defeat in war An asymmetric and non binary comparison of two test cases post World War II New German Cinema and post Vietnam War American cinema illuminates the indirect and intriguing ways these societies have dealt with the enormous psycho cultural difficulty of acknowledging their defeat and understanding its manifold meanings This book draws on psychoanalysis masculinity studies and corporeal feminism to explore the bodily experience of defeat It examines themes and representations of body and sexuality to create a theoretical framework that reveals anew the link between defeated masculinity and nationalism Building on an original analysis of such varied films as The Deer Hunter Full Metal Jacket The Tin Drum and Paris Texas the author suggests new criteria that highlight the characteristics of post traumatic cinema

The Plague of Fantasies Slavoj Žižek, 1997 Slavoj Zizek is without doubt one of the most stimulating and vibrant thinkers of our time and his idiosyncratic blend of Lacan and Hegel is always sparkling with insight and studded with amusing stories anecdotes and jokes In The Plague of Fantasies Zizek approaches another enormous subject with characteristic brio and provocativeness The current epoch is plagued by fantasms there is an ever intensifying antagonism between the process of ever greater abstraction of our lives whether in the form of digitalization or market relations and the deluge of pseudo concrete images which surround us Traditional critical thought would have sought to trace the roots of abstract notions in concrete social reality but today the correct procedure is the inverse from pseudo concrete imagery to the abstract process which structures our lives Ranging in his examples from national differences in toilet design to cybersex and from intellectuals responses to the Bosnian war to Robert Schumann's music Zizek explores the relations between fantasy and ideology the way in which fantasy animates enjoyment while protecting against its excesses the associations of the notion of fetishism with fantasized seduction and the ways in which digitalization and cyberspace affect the status of subjectivity To the already initiated The Plague of Fantasies will be a welcome reminder of why they enjoy Zizek's writing so much For new readers it will be the beginning of a long and meaningful relationship

The Films of the Eighties William J. Palmer, 1995 In this remarkable sequel to his Films of the Seventies A Social History William J Palmer examines more than three hundred films as texts that represent revise parody comment upon and generate discussion about major events issues and social trends of the eighties Palmer defines the dialectic between film art and social history taking as his theoretical model the holograph of history that originated from the New Historicist theories of Hayden White and Dominick LaCapra Combining the interests and methodologies of social history and film criticism Palmer contends that film is a socially conscious interpreter and commentator upon the issues of contemporary social history In the eighties such issues included the war in Vietnam the preservation of the American farm terrorism nuclear holocaust changes in Soviet American relations neoconservative feminism and yuppies Among the films Palmer examines are Platoon The Killing Fields The River Out of Africa Little Drummer Girl Kiss of the Spiderwoman Silkwood The Day After Red Dawn Moscow on the Hudson Troop Beverly Hills and Fatal Attraction Utilizing the principles of New Historicism Palmer demonstrates that film can analyze and critique history as well as present it     Inventing Vietnam Michael A.
