The Essential School Counselor in a Changing Society Jeannine R. Studer, 2014-02-07 Jeannine R Studer's The Essential School Counselor in a Changing Society offers a practical approach to helping students understand the methods and standards in contemporary school counseling. Integrating the new ASCA model as well as the CACREP Standards across all areas of school counseling practice, this core text provides a unique and relevant perspective on the 21st century school counselor. Studer focuses on ethics and ethical decision making as well as contemporary issues faced by today's counselor such as crisis response, career counseling, and advisement, group counseling, advocacy, and collaboration. The text begins with coverage of school counseling foundations, addresses intervention and prevention, and devotes the final section to enhancing academics through a positive school culture. Not only does this text address the CACREP standards for school counseling, but it also provides excellent examples and applications of school counseling within the ASCA National Model framework. Karen D Rowland, Mercer University. This text is a valuable contribution to the profession, addressing the multi-dimensional and complex roles and responsibilities of the 21st century school counselor. It is a foundational text that counselor educators can utilize throughout a master's degree program in mentoring interns into the profession. Diana L Stephens, California Lutheran University.

A Guide to Practicum and Internship for School Counselors-in-Training, Counseling Children and Adolescents Jolie Ziomek-Daigle, 2025-03-07. Expansive and practical Counseling Children and Adolescents offers graduate students the information they need to prepare for work in both school and clinical mental health settings, two CACREP specialty areas. This text includes not only content related to developmental and counseling theories, but also information on evidence-based practices across the continuum of care, diagnosis, and treatment of youth, and current trends such as integrated care, mindfulness, telehealth, and neuroscience. Unique to this book are sections on both the instructional and behavioral Response to Intervention (RtI) model and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) examples of evidence-based practices used across settings such as Student Success Skills, Check, Connect, and trauma-focused CBT, and a review of common mental health-related disorders most often seen in youth and treatment recommendations. Ethical and legal implications are infused throughout the book, as are CACREP learning outcomes. The new edition uses a trauma-informed and anti-racist lens and fills a gap in counselor preparation programs. A testbank is available to instructors at www.routledge.com. 9781032532455

TWELVE COUNSELING PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN AT RISK Susan T. Dennison, 1989-01-01. The school counselor and related mental health professional is provided with structural curricula for treating twelve specific problem areas of children, with step-by-step guides for planning and conducting therapy. Over 150 assessment instruments, 120 session themes, 30 techniques, and 150 related resources greatly reduce planning and research time. While written primarily for children counselors, the book is easily adapted by speech language pathologists, art therapists, and for training the beginning therapist. The book targets children at risk with emotional problems, but covers secondary difficulties, physical handicaps, neurological impairments.
