

A romantic couple stands in the center of the frame, embracing. The woman has long dark hair and wears a dark blue floral dress. The man has short brown hair and wears a light blue button-down shirt and olive green shorts. They are positioned in front of a calm lake. To the left, a wooden gazebo with a brown roof sits on a small dock. In the background, a dense forest of evergreen trees lines the shore. To the right, a small sailboat with a white sail is on the water. The sky is a vibrant blue with soft, white clouds. The overall scene is peaceful and idyllic, evoking a sense of summer romance.

Just for the Summer Laurel Lorraine Lancer Ph. D., 2009-08 Laurel's disturbing and abusive childhood followed by a poor marriage resulted in a month long visit to a mental hospital where in the 1960s the use of electroshock and insulin shock therapy was prevalent With humor and pathos Laurel poignantly describes her insulin and shock treatments the insensitivity of the hospital staff and the numerous psychiatric problems of various patients The author now a PhD in psychology relates her memoirs with insight and compassion In addition to the mistreatment of mental patients in the 50s and 60s the accounts of various psychiatric disturbances will be of particular interest to students of human nature Similar to One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Laurel's story of her thirty days of treatment provides an expose of the pitifully inadequate treatment for mental health issues at that time
