Le Voile De Draupadi:

Transoceanic Dialogues Véronique Bragard, 2008 This work offers a close reading of literary works in French and in English by women writers whose ancestors originally came to the Caribbean or across the Indian Ocean as indentured labourers

Rainbow Colors Srilata Ravi, 2007-01-01 The narratives under consideration in Rainbow Colors depict Mauritius's history of competing colonial forces describe its intricate social geography of free and forced migrations and portray the anxieties of mixed race persons and cultures in postcolonies Through a rigorous analysis of novels from Loys Masson's L'étoile et la clef 1945 to Ananda Devi's Moi l'interdite 2000 this study argues that there is no single grand narrative of cultural hybridity and ethnic pluralism in Mauritius By conceptualizing literature as the overlapping space of ethnic cultural realities national and transnational identities and a poetics of alterity Rainbow Colors explores how different literary ethno topographies of Mauritius are produced at this intersection This original work considers Mauritian writing in French in its own right and not as a minor literature within the Francophone tradition Furthermore while significant monographs on ethnicity and nation have been published on the African and Caribbean novel in English and in French this is the first such single authored book length study on Mauritian novels to date

The Mauritian Novel Julia Waters, 2019-01-08 This book analyses how the idea or the problem of belonging is articulated in a range of contemporary francophone Mauritian novels Waters explores how forms of affective belonging intersect with the exclusionary politics of belonging in novels by Nathacha Appanah Ananda Devi Shenaz Patel Bertrand de Robillard Amal Sewtohul and Carl de Souza

Ananda Devi Ritu Tyagi, 2013-10-10 Ananda Devi Feminism Narration and Polyphony is the first full length monograph devoted to Ananda Devi a dynamic contemporary Francophone writer Recipient of Prix Louis Guilloux and Prix T l vision Suisse Romande du Roman she is described by many as a prototype of a new generation of Mauritian writers This book analyses Devi's unconventional polyphonic narratives particularly her strategies that allow marginalized narrators to disrupt androcentric and dominant structures of narrative construction thereby creating hybrid magical spaces for feminine expression Drawing on the notion of feminist narratology that investigates the relation between gender and narrative this book focuses on a wide range of Western and non Western narrative strategies such as plot and plotlessness narrative metalepsis pluritemporality multisubjectivity myths folktales and magic It also demonstrates how her texts become the point of convergence of the West and the non West the feminine and the androcentric the real and the extra real as muted discourses resurface and traditional distinctions between categories are blurred in favor of alternate and new possibilities As this book is interdisciplinary in its approach it will appeal to a broad range of audience from those interested in Contemporary Francophone and Indian Ocean Literature to scholars in Women's Writing Post Colonial Studies and Narratology

Transcultural Negotiations of Gender Saugata Bhaduri, Indrani Mukherjee, 2015-09-18 Transcultural Negotiations of Gender probes into how gender is negotiated along the two axes of belonging and longing the twin desires of being located within a cultural milieu while yearning for either what has passed by or what is yet to come It also probes into the category of transculturality itself by examining how not only does it pertain to the coming together of cultures from diverse spatial locations but how shifts over time and changing performative modes and technological means of articulation within what may be presumed to be the same culture can also lead to the transcultural The volume comprises four sections Part I Be longing in Time examines negotiation of gender through transcultural acts of myths rituals and religious practices being revised and revisited over time Part II Be longing in Space studies how gender is renegotiated when people from different spaces interact as also when public spaces and domains themselves become sites of such negotiations In Part III Performing Be longing such transcultural negotiations are located in the context of changing modes of performance considering particularly that gender itself is performative The final section Modernity Technology and Be longing traces how gender becomes transculturally negotiated in a space like India with the advent of modernity and its companion technology

Convergences and Interferences ,2016-09-12 How does one imagine plurality How does one find new strategies for writing diversity and polyphony How does one read the most challenging creative and critical works of the present time This bi lingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing careful analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi lingual and multi cultural dialogue In this collection of theoretically and politically aware close readings of contemporary cultural production the focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences The collection foregrounds the work of innovative writers who seek to express the ungraspable presence of cultural newness at the same time as situating themselves in the richness of detail of local lives This volume most particularly finds a balance of critical approach between the everyday attempts at negotiation and survival and the insight brought to the reader by postcolonial syncretic and feminist theoretical analysis

Literary Location and Dislocation of Myth in the Post/Colonial Anglophone World

,2017-11-01 The English speaking world today is so diverse that readers need a gateway to its many postcolonial narratives and art forms This collection of essays examines this diver sity and what brings so many different cul tures together Whether Indian Canadian Australasian or Zimbabwean the stories dis cussed focus on how artists render experi ences of separation belonging and loss The histories and transformations postcolonial countries have gone through have given rise to a wide range of myths that retrace their birth evolution and decline Myths have enabled ethnic communities to live together the first section of this collection dwells on stories which can be both inclusive and exclusive under the aegis of nation While certain essays revisit and retell the crucial role women have played in mythical texts like the Mah bh rata others discuss how settler colonies return to and re appro priate a past in order to define themselves in the present Crises clashes and conflicts which are at the heart of the second section of this book entail myths of historical and cultural dislocation They appear as breaks in time that call for reconstruction and redefini tion a chief instance being the trauma of slavery with its deep geographical and cul tural dislocations However the crises that have deprived entire communities of their homeland and their identity are followed by moments of remembrance reconciliation and rebuilding As the term postcolonial suggests the formerly colonized people seek to revisit and re investigate the impact of colonization before committing it to collective memory In a more specifically literary section texts are read as mythopoeia foregrounding the aesthetic and poetic issues in colonial and postcolonial poems and novels The texts explored here study in different ways the process of mythologization through images of location and dislocation The editors of this collection hope that readers worldwide will enjoy reading about the myths that have shaped and continue to shape postcolonial communities and nations
