Waiblinger, Alexander Haslberger, 2023-08-28 Sustainability has become an issue widely debated in many countries Given the central role of food supply and the emotional relationship that modern mankind still has to its food sustainability is seen as a value which has to be maintained throughout food supply chains The complexity of modern food systems invokes a variety of ethical implications which emerge from contrasts between ideals perceptions and the conditions of technical processes within food systems and the concerns connected to this This book covers a broad range of aspects within the general issue of sustainable food production and ethics Linking different academic disciplines topics range from reflections about the roots of sustainability and the development of concepts and approaches to globalisation and resilience of food systems as well as specific ethical aspects of organic farming and animal welfare Modern technologies which are intensely advocated by certain stakeholder groups and their societal challenges are addressed as are many other specific cases of food production and processing consumer perception and marketing Development, Social Change and Environmental Sustainability

Sumarmi, Nanda Meiji, Joan Purwasih, Abdul Kodir, Edo Andriess, Dorina Ilies, Ken Miichi, 2021-06-24 Nowadays the concept of SDGs Sustainable Development Goals is starting to replace the concept of MDGs Millennium Developmental Goals It is a global goal adopted by all United Nations member states It emphasizes the idea that the development of every country can only be achieved by balancing other factors such as social economic and environmental sustainability It is already clear how sustainable development works with environmental ethics and management However there are still issues regarding the sustainable development and human well being Sustainable development should focus on finding a way for society to meet their present needs for the long term without sacrificing the ability of future generations to meet their needs This international seminar provides research results and literature regarding the topic of sustainable development concept the dynamics of sustainable development and social change and environmental sustainability The international seminar entitled 1st International Conference on Contemporary Sociology and Educational Transformation listed speakers from several countries providing an overview on human and environmental resilience This book contains a selection of papers presented at the conference Lets Be Friend - A Curious, Calm Cow Dr. Sahadeva Das, 2018-01-01 As the title suggests this book deals with the subject of cows Normally we see cows as docile dumb creatures grazing nonchalantly in some far distance But there is a whole lot more going on in their lives Numerous stories from around the World are presented herein to substantiate this point Where does all the war racism terrorism violence and cruelty that s so endemic to human civilization come from Why do humans exploit and massacre each other so regularly Why is our species so violence prone To answer these questions we would do well to think about our exploitation and slaughter of animals and its effect on human civilization
