Naidoo, 2018-08-24 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning Tourism Economics Metin

Kozak,2015-09-04 This book examines tourism economics in detail providing a range of specific case studies of tourism operations in various countries across the world The contributors to this volume are from diverse locations with ten countries across four continents represented namely Canada China Greece India Iran Poland Portugal South Africa Spain and the USA The book is systematic in structure and thorough in content and will be useful for both academics and tourism professionals seeking to update their knowledge and practice of tourism economics and to contribute to the field by developing further research proposals at both the micro and macro levels This is the Set Time Nsovo Manganyi,2024-03-01 I dedicate this book to anyone who has been in one place or position for the longest time and needs to move forward to a better place This is the set time for you to move to a place or position God has predestined you for You are created for greatness and not to be average You are about to shift and after reading this book I believe and trust God will have moved you to that place of greatness Be encouraged to read from first page to the end Your life will never be the same again This is the set time for God to set you free from all the bondage you are going through This is the set time to experience the fullness of God s love and His movement in your life as He fights your battles for you This is the set time to overcome what was defeating you God cares about you and He knows what you are going through He is ready to comfort and restore you back to His likeness Nsovo Manganyi Handbook of Road Ecology Rodney van der Ree,Daniel J. Smith,Clara Grilo,2015-06-15 Winner of the IENE

Project Award 2016 This authoritative volume brings together some of the world s leading researchers academics practitioners and transportation agency personnel to present the current status of the ecological sustainability of the linear infrastructure primarily road rail and utility easements that dissect and fragment landscapes globally It outlines the potential impacts demonstrates how this infrastructure is being improved and how broad ecological principles are applied to mitigate the impact of road networks on wildlife Research and monitoring is an important aspect of road ecology encompassing all phases of a transportation project This book covers research and monitoring to span the entire project continuum starting with planning and design through construction and into maintenance and management It focuses on impacts and solutions for species groups and specific regions with particular emphasis on the unique challenges facing Asia South America and Africa Other key features Contributions from authors originating from over 25 countries including from all continents Each chapter summarizes important lessons and includes lists of further reading and thoroughly up to date references Highlights principles that address key points relevant to all phases in all road projects Explains best practices based on a number of successful international case studies Chapters are stand alone but they also build upon and complement each other extensive cross referencing directs the reader to relevant material elsewhere in the book Handbook of Road Ecology offers a comprehensive summary of approximately 30 years of global efforts to quantify the impacts of roads and traffic and implement effective mitigation As such it is essential reading for those involved in the planning design assessment and construction of new roads the management and maintenance of existing roads and the modifying or retrofitting of existing roads and problem locations This handbook is an accessible resource for both developed and developing countries including government transportation agencies Government environmental conservation agencies NGOs and road funding and donor organisations

Pathways to Development Samuel Hickey, Kunal Sen, 2024 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY BC ND 4.0 International License It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations The puzzle of why some countries are wealthier and more developed than others continues to confound students and practitioners of development alike Whereas earlier grand explanations focused on issues of geography or institutions the second decade of the 21st century finally saw politics arrive centre stage within international development This catalyzed a search to answer the key question under what conditions do governments become committed to and capable of delivering development How can these processes be conceptualized and researched And what if anything can be done to get the politics right for development Pathways to Development draws on a major comparative research effort to present new answers to the question of how politics shapes development It develops and applies a power domains framework across multiple countries in the global South to uncover the political drivers of development across a wide range of policy areas including economic growth gender equity health and education Hickey and Sen find that a country's pathway to development is shaped less by institutional type than by the nature of the politics and power relations that underpinned these institutions and which shape how they actually function in practice within different policy domains Comparative analysis reveals two alternative pathways to developmental outcomes each of which is specific to particular configurations of power The first involves a dominant ruling coalition with a strong developmental vision that faces an existential threat from social forces the second involves competitive settlements within which the short term vision of ruling elites and the politicization of the public bureaucracy are offset by the presence of strong and coherent coalitions within particular policy domains Hickey and Sen use these insights to generate innovative practical suggestions for policy actors seeking to promote inclusive development that are aligned to critical differences in political context

Building a Capable State Ian Palmer, Nishendra Moodley, Susan Parnell, 2017-11-15 The sustainable development goals signed in 2016 marked a new phase in global development thinking one which is focused on ecologically and fiscally sustainable human settlements Few countries offer a better testing ground for their attainment than post apartheid South Africa Since the coming to power of the African National Congress the country has undergone a policy making revolution driven by an urgent need to improve access to services for the country's black majority A quarter century on from the fall of apartheid Building a Capable State asks what lessons can be learned from the South African experience The book assesses whether the South African government has succeeded in improving service delivery focusing on the vital sectors of water and sanitation energy roads public transport and housing Emphasizing the often overlooked role of local government institutions and finance the book demonstrates that effective service delivery can have a profound impact on the social structure of emerging economies and must form an integral part of any future development strategy A comprehensive examination of urban service delivery in the global South Building a Capable State is essential reading for students and practitioners across the social sciences public finance and engineering sectors

Institutional Arrangements for Conservation, Development and Tourism in Eastern and Southern Africa René van der Duim, Machiel Lamers, Jakomijn van Wijk, 2014-11-16 This book presents an overview of different institutional arrangements for tourism biodiversity conservation and rural poverty reduction in eastern and southern Africa These approaches range from conservancies in Namibia community based organizations in Botswana conservation enterprises in Kenya private game reserves in South Africa to sport hunting in Uganda and transfrontier conservation areas The book presents a comparative analysis of these arrangements and highlights that most arrangements emerged in the 1990s through either a decentralized or centralized change trajectory that was sponsored by donors They aim to address some of the challenges of the fortress types of conservation by combining principles of community based natural resource management with a neoliberal approach to conservation evident in the use of tourism as the main mechanism for accruing benefits from wildlife The book illustrates the empirical relevance of these novel arrangements by presenting their growth in numbers and discuss how these arrangements differ in their form With respect to the conservation and development impacts of these arrangements we show that they have secured large amounts of land for conservation but also generated governance challenges and disputes on tourism benefit sharing affecting the stability of these arrangements to generate socioeconomic and conservation benefits

The Gnu's World Richard Estes, 2014-04-12 This is the first scholarly book on the antelope that dominates the savanna ecosystems of eastern and southern Africa It presents a synthesis of research conducted over a span of fifty years mainly on the wildebeest in the Ngorongoro and Serengeti ecosystems where eighty percent of the world's wildebeest population lives Wildebeest and other grazing mammals drive the ecology and evolution of the savanna ecosystem Richard D Estes describes this process and also details the wildebeest's life history focusing on its social organization and unique reproductive system which are adapted to the animal's epic annual migrations He also examines conservation issues that affect wildebeest including range wide population declines

Change Management in TVET Colleges Kraak, Andre, Paterson, Andrew, 2016-07-25 The Technical and Vocational Education and Training TVET college environment is marked by increasingly stark juxtapositions between what needs to be achieved in the post school education sector and the increasing difficulty of current conditions The triple challenge of poverty inequality and unemployment weighs heavily on the social political and economic fabric of the country and expectations are high that the TVET colleges can make a pivotal contribution to counter these challenges Despite laudable increases in TVET enrolment the education system needs to work harder to accommodate the weight of demand for post school further education and training

FET band qualifications from young people not in education employment or training At the same time it is vital to secure adequate quality in TVET programmes which depend so much on the competence and commitment of college lecturers This collection offers a set of research papers that provide new analytic and empirical material on The political economy of TVET types in different countries which by comparison illuminate the South African case A periodisation of government interventions in the TVET sector over the last three decades The unsettled state and status of TVET lecturers in relation to their job requirements and conditions of service The halting evolution of collegial relationships between college lecturers towards higher collegiality Employer expectations of college graduates and how colleges are responding and An analysis of the outcomes of a college improvement intervention in Limpopo and the Eastern Cape This book will offer valuable information and insights for decision makers as well as analysts of institutional change concerning links between education and economic growth with particular regard to TVET graduates employment rates

Mud to bricks: A review of school infrastructure spending and delivery Carmen Abdoll, Conrad Barberton, 2014-07-04 The Centre for Child Law commissioned this study by Cornerstone Economic Research to track school infrastructure spending and delivery The report written by Carmen Abdoll and Conrad Barberton makes the concerning finding that the national Department of Basic Education has woefully underspent the School Infrastructure Backlog grant for two years running In 2011 2012 spending was a little over 10 per cent and only at 23 per cent in 2012 2013 at the end of the third quarter The ASIDI target for the number of schools to be built in 2011 2012 and 2012 2013 was 49 However only 10 had been completed by the end of the first year They predict that if the DBE continues at the same delivery rate a realistic timeframe for the eradication of schools with inappropriate structures is probably 2023 24 They make recommendations which if followed could shorten the delay significantly This study shows the importance of monitoring and evaluating progress against court orders and out of court settlements to ensure that the right to a basic education is made real
