Jewish Girls Coming of Age in America, 1860-1920 Melissa R. Klapper, 2005 Jewish Girls Coming of Age in America 1860 1920 draws on a wealth of archival material much of which has never been published or even read to illuminate the ways in which Jewish girls adolescent experiences reflected larger issues relating to gender ethnicity religion and education Klapper explores the dual roles girls played as agents of acculturation and guardians of tradition Their search for an identity as American girls that would not require the abandonment of Jewish tradition and culture mirrored the struggle of their families and communities for integration into American society While focusing on their lives as girls not the adults they would later become Klapper draws on the papers of such figures as Henrietta Szold founder of Hadassah Edna Ferber Pulitzer Prize winning author of Showboat and Marie Syrkin literary critic and Zionist Klapper also analyzes the diaries memoirs and letters of hundreds of other girls whose later lives and experiences have been lost to history Told in an engaging style and filled with colorful quotes the book brings to life a neglected group of fascinating historical figures during a pivotal moment in the development of gender roles adolescence and the modern American Jewish community

Sketch Maps: Drawing the Geographical Imagination Carla Lois, 2023-05-25 Sketch maps despite their intuitive informal appearance and seemingly naive use are intellectual devices and efficient tools that shape the geographical imagination regardless of the drawing skills of their makers By delineating the silhouettes of nations we express territorial knowledge and geopolitical stereotypes that although shaped at school from an early age organized the way we interact with the world why do we still need to draw maps What is behind our common and naturalized practice of sketching maps This innovative book deciphers why and how the intuitive mechanisms behind sketch mapping activate multiple conscious and unconscious knowledges about place and space
