years in South Africa has seen many changes in education the creation of a single department of education common examinations for all learners in public schools in the country a new outcomes based education curriculum which was introduced to learners in the general education and training phase since 1998 and will be introduced to the further education and training phase from 2006 To evaluate the success of these changes South African researchers still use the indicator of student achievement The matriculation examination is the visible high profile and public performance indicator Every year parents learners teachers researchers government officials policymakers and the general public get involved in the debate around the matric examination with the most frequently asked questions being Did the pass rate go up Are standards dropping Are the results real or have they been manipulated How is our education system doing Are we meeting the development goals What should the matriculation examination of the future look like participants from government national

Wolff, Pamela Maseko, Russell H Kaschula, Christine Anthonissen, Bassey E Antia, 2017-05-01 An in depth look at the changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society To date there has been no published textbook which takes into account changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication breaks new ground in this arena The scope of this book ranges from macro sociolinguistic questions pertaining to language policies and their implementation or non implementation to micro sociolinguistic observations of actual language use in verbal interaction mainly in multilingual contexts of Higher Education HE There is a gradual move for the study of language and culture to be taught in the context of professional disciplines in which they would be used for example Journalism and African languages Education and African languages etc The book caters for this growing market Because of its multilingual nature it caters to English and Afrikaans language speakers as well as the Sotho and Nguni language groups _ the largest languages in South Africa and also increasingly used in the context of South African Higher Education It brings together various inter linked disciplines such as Sociolinguistics and Applied Language Studies Media Studies and Journalism History and Education Social and Natural Sciences Law Human Language Technology Music Intercultural Communication and Literary Studies The unique cross cutting disciplinary features of the book will make it a must have for twenty first century South African students and scholars and those interested in applied language issues

Fraud and Education Harold J. Noah, Max A. Eckstein, 2001 Fraud and Education gives an informative overview of cheating in examinations in the U S and foreign countries and of the current state of fraud in education and research It differs however from many popular treatises on the same subject in that it is not intended as a blanket condemnation of American or foreign education Instead of assigning blame for the prevalence of fraud the authors point to such factors as growth in the number of persons engaged in education and research pressures on individuals to succeed improvements in communications especially the Internet and e mail and in techniques of document reproduction
