Racial Situations John Hartigan Jr.,2020-10-06 Racial Situations challenges perspectives on race that rely upon oft repeated claims that race is culturally constructed and hence simply false and distorting John Hartigan asserts instead that we need to explain how race is experienced by people as a daily reality His starting point is the lives of white people in Detroit As a distinct minority whites in this city can rarely assume they are racially unmarked and normative privileges generally associated with whiteness Hartigan conveys their attempts to make sense of how race matters in their lives and in Detroit generally Rather than compiling a generic sampling of white views Hartigan develops an ethnographic account of whites in three distinct neighborhoods an inner city underclass area an adjacent debatably gentrifying community and a working class neighborhood bordering one of the city s wealthy suburbs In tracking how racial tensions develop or become defused in each of these sites Hartigan argues that whites do not articulate their racial identity strictly in relation to a symbolic figure of black Otherness He demonstrates instead that intraracial class distinctions are critical in whites determinations of when and how race matters In each community the author charts a series of names hillbilly gentrifier and racist which whites use to make distinctions among themselves He shows how these terms function in everyday discourses that reflect the racial consciousness of the communities and establish boundaries of status and privilege among whites in these areas

Empire of Contingency Jorge Flores, 2024-10-15 Explores the information and communication practices of the Portuguese empire in sixteenth and seventeenth century India Empire of Contingency explores the information and communication practices of the Portuguese empire in late sixteenth and seventeenth century India a period during which Portuguese imperial ambitions were struggling for survival while the Mughal empire was at the height of its power and influence Jorge Flores uncovers the tenuous but ingenious apparatuses of intelligence through which the Estado da ndia the State of the Indies the name given to the Portuguese political administrative unit in the region between the Cape of Good Hope and East Asia endeavored to survive in a vast Indo Persian world shaped by the influence and power of the Mughal empire Detailing the complex relations that the officials of the Portuguese empire particularly in Goa the capital of the Estado da ndia maintained with the Mughal empire as well as the sultanates of Ahmadnagar and Bijapur in the Deccan region through information gathering record keeping interpreting and diplomatic correspondence the book demonstrates how the Portuguese territories along the western coast of India were substantially incorporated into the vast Persianate cultural sphere spanning from Iran to Southeast Asia The process of empire building on the fringes of the Persianate world and the prolonged interaction with the Mughal empire Ahmadnagar and Bijapur Flores argues led to the irregular non linear and incomplete assimilation of the Portuguese empire into Persianate India Overturning teleological narratives that portray the workings of European empire as the unilateral imposition of power dynamics by a dominant omniscient actor Flores reveals how Portuguese imperial administrators were vulnerable participants in a network of relations involving multiple political powers relations that required enormous bureaucratic and diplomatic effort to understand and successfully navigate Showing how a European empire was drawn into the political practices and rituals of the Indo Persian world Flores decenters the lenses conventionally used to observe the Portuguese empire in Asia and helps us rethink its nature while questioning the boundaries of the Indo Persian world

Interim Assessment of the HOPE VI Program Cross-Site Report Mary Joel Hollin, 2011-11-17 In 1989 Congress established the Nat Comm on Severely Distressed Public Housing to explore the problems of troubled public housing developments and to establish a plan to address those problems by the year 2000 Following several years of research and public hearings the Comm's 1992 final report identified the key factors that defined severely distressed housing extensive physical deterioration of the property a considerable proportion of residents living below the poverty level a high incidence of serious crime and management problems as evidenced by a large number of vacancies high unit turnover and low rent collection rates The Comm members agreed that existing approaches for improving public housing were inadequate to address the needs of severely distressed developments and proposed the creation of a new program to address comprehensively the social and physical problems of distressed public housing communities Originally called the Urban Revitalization Demonstration Program this public housing revitalization program soon became known by the acronym HOPE VI Homeownership and Opportunity for People Everywhere In 1998 under the Dept of Housing and Urban Development HUD a 5 year evaluation of the HOPE VI program was begun The Interim

Assessment of the HOPE VI Program was designed to study program outcomes by collecting and analyzing data about 15 HOPE VI sites once redevelopment was completed and units were reoccupied This report presents the study findings Figures and tables This is a print on demand report     The Battle for Fortune Charlene Makley,2018-05-15 In a deeply ethnographic appraisal based on years of in situ research The Battle for Fortune looks at the rising stakes of Tibetans encounters with Chinese state led development projects in the early 2000s The book builds upon anthropology s qualitative approach to personhood power and space to rethink the premises and consequences of economic development campaigns in China s multiethnic northwestern province of Qinghai Charlene Makley considers Tibetans encounters with development projects as first and foremost a historically situated interpretive politics in which people negotiate the presence or absence of moral and authoritative persons and their associated jurisdictions and powers Because most Tibetans believe the active presence of deities and other invisible beings has been the ground of power causation and fertile or fortunate landscapes Makley also takes divine beings seriously refusing to relegate them to a separate less consequential religious or premodern world The Battle for Fortune therefore challenges readers to grasp the unique reality of Tibetans values and fears in the face of their marginalization in China Makley uses this approach to encourage a more multidimensional and dynamic understanding of state local relations than mainstream accounts of development and unrest that portray Tibet and China as a kind of yin and yang pair for models of statehood and development in a new global order     Playing for Change Rob Rosenthal,Richard Flacks,2015-11-17 Although music is known to be part of the great social movements that have rocked the world its specific contribution to political struggle has rarely been closely analyzed Is it truly the lifeblood of movements as some have declared or merely the entertainment between the speeches Drawing on interviews case studies and musical and lyrical analysis Rosenthal and Flacks offer a brilliant analysis and a wide ranging look at the use of music in movements in the US and elsewhere over the past hundred years From their interviews the voices of Pete Seeger Ani DiFranco Tom Morello Holly Near and many others enliven this highly readable book     Modernism on the Nile Alex Dika Seggerman,2019-08-13 Analyzing the modernist art movement that arose in Cairo and Alexandria from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s Alex Dika Seggerman reveals how the visual arts were part of a multifaceted transnational modernism While the work of diverse major Egyptian artists during this era may have appeared to be secular she argues it reflected the subtle but essential inflection of Islam as a faith history and lived experience in the overarching development of Middle Eastern modernity Challenging typical views of modernism in art history as solely Euro American and expanding the conventional periodization of Islamic art history Seggerman theorizes a constellational modernism for the emerging field of global modernism Rather than seeing modernism in a generalized hyperconnected network she finds that art and artists circulated in distinct constellations that encompassed finite local and transnational relations Such constellations which could engage visual systems both along and beyond the Nile from Los Angeles to Delhi were materialized in visual culture that ranged from oil paintings and sculpture to photography and prints Based on extensive research in Egypt Europe and the United States this richly illustrated book poses a compelling argument for the importance of Muslim networks to global modernism
