Sublime Cosmos in Graeco-Roman Literature and its Reception David Christenson, Cynthia White, 2024-03-07 The essays collected in this volume examine manifestations of our sublime cosmos in ancient literature and its reception Individual themes include religious mystery calendrical and cyclical thinking as ordering principles of human experience divine birth and the manifold nature of divinity both awesome and terrifying contemplation of the sky and meteorological irregularity fears associated with overpowering natural and anthropogenic events and the aspirations and limitations of human expression In texts ranging from Homer to Keats the volume s chapters apply diverse critical methods and approaches that engage with sublimity in various aesthetic agential and metaphysical aspects The ancient texts epic dramatic historiographic and lyric treated here are rooted in a remote world where within a framework of perceived celestial order literature myth and science still communicated profoundly a tradition that continued in literary receptions of these ancient works This volume honours the intellectual legacy of Thomas D Worthen a scholar whose expertise and insights cut across multiple disciplines and who influenced and inspired students and colleagues at the University of Arizona USA for over three decades Beyond clarifying temporally and culturally distant contemplations of the human universe these essays aim to inform the continuing sense of wonder and horror at the sublime heights and depths of our ever changing cosmos

Kate Bush and the Moving Image Stephen Glynn, 2024-07-05 In this unique study Stephen Glynn demonstrates that Kate Bush s work in both sound and vision has long been influenced and characterised by and at times aimed at film and television media The volume explores in depth Bush s music of allusion and analyses first the significance of film and television references throughout the lyrics and settings of her songs beginning with her breakthrough hit Wuthering Heights It also surveys the shaping presence of film and television in the look narrative and artistry of her music videos including the examination of celebrated works such as Cloudbusting and Hounds of Love Finally the book assesses Bush's most intensive cinematic undertaking her 1993 album The Red Shoes with its evident homage to the 1948 film of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger and its concurrent visual reworking as Bush's sole film venture The Line The Cross The Curve. Thus with its deployment across music video and film Glynn demonstrates the centrality of Kate Bush's cinephilia to her work. Accessible yet academically rigorous Kate Bush and the Moving Image is a stand out study of the iconic singer songwriter's discography and cinematic ventures. It will appeal to both students and scholars of Film
