Balancing Structural Power Samuel Schlichting, 2025-07-16 Great power politics has returned to the global stage It leads to complex balancing games among the leading countries of the world not only in terms of military power but also with regard to resources productive capacities infrastructure and narratives For Eurasia China s phenomenal rise is a political game changer Against the background of the Belt and Road Initiative BRI and China s ever increasing presence in the former post Soviet region of Central Asia this book develops the concept of Structural Power to adopt International Relations theory to the empirical reality of great power politics in the early 21st century Det. 25 Michael L. Haley MSG (Ret.)

USAR, 2023-01-18 When Sergeant First Class Haley and 35 other Soldiers in Detachment 25 deployed to Afghanistan on a mission to mentor the training and development of the Afghanistan National Army they did not know how chewed up the situation was Selected from volunteers within the Ninety Fifth Division the Army Reserve Drill Sergeants of Det 25 discovered that training the ANA was a joke Afghanistan was a toilet that needed to be flushed of its Taliban turds but that was never going to happen What did happen was that the entire world took a crap all over that country and left it more of a mess than it was before Operation Enduring Freedom began Nation building is a failure and the United States must never again attempt it anywhere else in the world Whenever someone tells the truth about military or political incompetence in the United States the government feigns plausible deniability or tries to suppress the truth This story tells the truth about a group of American heroes and legends who did not deserve a loss for their sacrifices Thanks to the worst president in American history the loss of American lives has become a joke Americans can only laugh about OEF because there is nothing else anyone can do now except to have faith hope and love Military Review, 2019 Memoirs of a Deployed Airman Patrick B. Monahan, 2009 Almost as if it were a dream day number 360 came and I was transported into another world The flights were long but within just a couple of days I found myself back at my original starting point Salt Lake City Utah Before arriving in Salt Lake City though I was greeted by my parents and my in laws at Baltimore Washington International BWI airport As I scrambled through the baggage claim area and customs I made my way towards my release from the regimented deployment world Both sets of parents were poised and ready to greet me and my friends returning from overseas Upon catching a glimpse of me they popped out of their seats and began waving small American flags in my general direction It was very nice to see them and it was a nice patriotic sight I arrived at the airport at approximately midnight and I was hungry so we all went out to eat at an all night diner in Arlington Virginia It was about 0300 in the morning when we finished up our meal and headed back to my in laws house to sleep I caught an 1800 flight the next day which brought me to Salt Lake City at approximately 2300 that night The second leg of my flight from Phoenix Arizona was very comfortable and relaxing Wearing my DCUs one of the flight attendant s decided to move me to First Class Not only did this provide me with more comfort but it also provided me an opportunity to sit next to her husband who had joined her on the flight I had a really nice conversation with the flight attendant's husband throughout the flight. Then as we landed in Salt Lake City the flight attendant announced to all of the people on the flight that I had just returned home from the war in Afghanistan. Everyone began to clap and I received the honor of being the first person off of the airplane. I then began my mad dash towards my family. People noticed that I was in uniform holding two little bears, one for each of my girls, and I was practically running so everyone pretty much got out of my way. Within minutes I saw Melanie holding a Welcome Home poster and my girls waving small American flags. It was a very impressive and precious sight. I scooped up both of my daughters in my hands and I embraced the whole family. The nice thing was that Suzanna didn't cry; everyone seemed to at least have some idea who I was this time. In fact, Annabelle wouldn't hardly let me go out of her sight for the next few days. I learned several days later that Annabelle had a lot of trouble sleeping while I was gone, which was attributed to me not being there and her not knowing when I would come home. This latter fact is what changed my mindset from wanting to go back to the combat zone any time soon. While I was gone, I made the most of my deployment and I even learned to enjoy many aspects of the adventure. However, when you see the effects of being gone on the homefront, nothing else seems to matter but family. Would I go again? Absolutely. But I would certainly wait for my number to come up or for someone to come asking for my assistance a little more passionately. When I arrived at my actual home in the Ogden, Utah area, I quickly noticed several decorations on the property I hadn't expected such extravagance, but I was certainly impressed by what I saw. As I walked around the house and the yard in my civilian clothes the next day, surrounded by my family, I finally felt like I was home.

U.S. Terminal Procedures, 2014 Long Hard Road, 2007

The call to war is often met by young soldiers who lack an understanding of what they are about to encounter. These young soldiers must be trained, prepared, and then led in battle by those with experience and understanding. The Noncommissioned Officer Corps. In an effort to preserve the history of the US Army Noncommissioned Officer and to provide future noncommissioned officers with an understanding of the actions necessary to prepare soldiers and to lead them in war, the US Army Sergeants Major Academy undertook a program to gather and publish the stories of NCOs who had served in both Afghanistan and Iraq. Most of the papers received were from students of the US Army Sergeants Major Course who had already deployed to either Operation Enduring Freedom or Operation Iraqi Freedom. This work highlights a few of those stories. A wide range of topics have been chosen to allow the reader to understand the preparations, training, and actions needed for NCOs to accomplish their missions. Many of the selected stories were shortened and edited for clarity; however, every attempt was made to remain true to the author's original intent.
