From Space with G A Mohr and Richard Sinclair      Global Citizenship, Cultural Citizenship and World Religions in Religion Education David Chidester, 2002      Spiritual Masters of the World's Religions Victoria Kennick, Arvind Sharma, 2012-12-28

What is a spiritual master? Spiritual Masters of the World's Religions offers an important contribution to religious studies by addressing that question in the context of such themes as charismatic authority, role models, symbolism, and categories of religious perception. The book contains essays by scholar-practitioners on the topic of spiritual masters in Judaic, Christian, Islamic, Hindu, Sikh, Buddhist, Confucian, and Daoist traditions. It provides a full spectrum of exemplars, including founders, spiritual masters who highlight cultural themes, and problematic figures of modern times. To define spiritual master, the work of Max Weber, Mircea Eliade, Daniel Gold, and Bruce Lincoln is referenced to provide a balanced notion that includes both religionist and reductionist perspectives. This book takes readers from the past spiritual masters to the future of masters of any sort, posing food for thought about the future of master-disciple relationships in an emerging age of egalitarian sentiments.

Teaching Adolescents Religious Literacy in a Post-9/11 World Robert Nash,Penny A. Bishop,2009-11-01 For thousands of years religion has been a key element of human societies Whenever we as educators exclude or minimize religion's vast role in society we leave out a large part of our world's shared history. This is a serious act of educational omission even neglect on the part of our nation's public middle and secondary schools particularly when adolescents are so ready to engage in meaningful conversation about the world that surrounds them. Our book's central purpose is to provide middle level and high school teachers with the necessary background knowledge and pedagogical skills necessary to help adolescents become religiously literate learners and citizens. Currently there is no text like ours on the market that both covers a number of world religions and presents concrete recommendations for teaching and learning this material. Our book is meant to educate the following audiences: teacher educators, middle level and high school teachers in all content areas, administrators, school boards, and parents. For us, educating for religious literacy is all about bringing adolescents into the 21st century of teeming religious and spiritual diversity, a long neglected component of the multicultural curriculum in public schools. In a post 9/11 world, religious literacy requires that students understand the whats and whys of differing religious beliefs both in their own country and elsewhere. It means looking for commonalities as well as differences between and among the great wisdom traditions both nationally and internationally. It is about understanding how all of us might live peacefully in a religiously diverse world. Our book accomplishes these goals by being informative, practical, experiential, case based, and above all, accessible to beginners.

Original 15,000 first printing.

Because I Think, I Believe Donald R. Wilson, 2010

Spiritual Clarity Jackie Wellman, 2005-07. Who is the more spiritual person: the woman on a Sunday morning excursion for coffee and a newspaper who swerves to avoid hitting a dog, or the man who hits the dog in his haste to get to church on time? Who knows? My point is that going to church has absolutely nothing to do with being a good person. Questions about religion have always troubled me. I decided to find some answers. This book contains my discoveries. Spiritual Clarity is easy to understand and does not attempt to influence its readers. Writing it has empowered me and led me to a conclusion that I feel good about.
