Islam and the European Empires UPSO eCollections (University Press Scholarship Online),2014 A comparative account of the engagement of all major European empires with Islam in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries exploring an array of themes ranging from the accommodation of Islam under imperial rule to Islamic anti colonial resistance and contributing to our understanding of religion and power in the modern world A History of Jeddah Ulrike Freitag,2020-03-19 An urban history of Jeddah from the late Ottoman period to the present day seen through its diverse and changing population Daily Life in Colonial Africa Toyin Falola,2024-07-11 Discover how European colonization across the many regions in Africa dramatically altered the continent and the daily lived experiences of its peoples Daily Life in Colonial Africa explores nine facets of daily life in the European colonized African continent such as domestic economic political and religious life Examples of everyday people farmers forced to switch to cash crops people of faith melding native traditions and European Christian doctrine on beliefs about the afterlife storytellers using allegory to discreetly challenge colonial rule show how colonialization impacted every aspect of life for Africa s indigenous people as well as how they adapted to new ways of life while maintaining their cultural roots Alongside the main text helpful additional resources such as a timeline of the colonization of Africa and a glossary of terms provide useful context for understanding what life in this period of history was truly like for the many different people and groups affected by Africa s colonization Coping with Defeat Jonathan Laurence,2021-06-22 The surprising similarities in the rise and fall of the Sunni Islamic and Roman Catholic empires in the face of the modern state Coping with Defeat presents a historical panorama of the Islamic and Catholic political religious empires and exposes striking parallels in their relationship with the modern state Drawing on interviews site visits and archival research in Turkey North Africa and Western Europe Jonathan Laurence demonstrates how over hundreds of years both Sunni and Catholic authorities experienced three major shocks and displacements religious reformation the rise of the nation state and mass migration As a result Catholic institutions eventually accepted the state s political jurisdiction and embraced transnational spiritual leadership as their central mission Laurence reveals an analogous process unfolding across the Sunni Muslim world in the twenty first century Identifying institutional patterns before and after political collapse Laurence shows how centralized religious communities relinquish power at different rates and times Whereas early Christianity and Islam were characterized by missionary expansion religious institutions forged in the modern era are primarily defensive in nature They respond to the simple but overlooked imperative to adapt to political defeat while fighting off ideological challenges to their spiritual authority Among Laurence s findings is that the disestablishment of Islam the doing away with Islamic affairs ministries in the Muslim world would harm not help with reconciliation to the rule of law Examining upheavals in geography politics and demography Coping with Defeat considers how centralized religions make peace with the loss of prestige Exploring Turkish Cultures Dr Laurence Raw,2011-01-18 This groundbreaking series of essays offers new insights into Turkish cultures both past and present Moving beyond the traditional binaries of east west Islam secularism and Europe Asia the book contains a variety of perspectives on contemporary Turkey from actors directors critics and other major cultural figures The book tries to situate these opinions in context by looking at how such perspectives are employed in different cultural spheres education theatre politics and the like Exploring Turkish Cultures contains the first major interviews published in English with prominent public figures including actors T rk n oray Genco Erkal and Nesrin Kazankaya Other figures interviewed include film directors Dervi Zaim and documentary filmmakers Ben Hopkins Pelin Esmer and zg r Do an An extended interview with the author translator and academic Tal t Halman rounds off the interview section Complementing these interviews are a series of essays on major Turkish films and theatrical productions both past and present Combining historical analysis comment and evaluation from an author who has spent two decades living in Turkey Exploring Turkish Cultures represents a major contribution to contemporary Turkish studies

The Middle East Keshav Bhattarai, Mahmoud Yousef, 2025-03-10 The Middle East and North Africa MENA region stands as a remarkable crossroads of tradition and modernity shaped by millennia of history under empires colonial powers and global influences This book unpacks the intricate dynamics of the region examining how historical resource exploitation border manipulation and cultural impositions have profoundly impacted its languages traditions and geopolitical identity The rich tapestry of Arabic Farsi Kurdish and regional dialects reflects a deep cultural resilience that has resisted globalization often fueled anti Western sentiments and prioritized the preservation of heritage over rapid economic development Central to the region s geopolitical importance is its vast oil wealth which has positioned MENA as a cornerstone of the global energy market and a continuous focus of Western interest This book explores how oil exploitation has economically empowered the region while simultaneously fostering political tension external interventions and instability As the global shift toward green technologies accelerates the book examines how this transition might redefine MENA s role in the global energy market offering both challenges and opportunities for transformation These dynamics unfold against the backdrop of water scarcity and a scorching inhospitable climate that further complicates the region s path forward Grounded in real life case studies and an interdisciplinary blend of historical cultural and economic analysis this book offers an unparalleled exploration of the MENA region s past present and future in the context of advanced technological development Co authored by a Palestinian native it brings a unique perspective by dissecting ongoing identity crises through unbiased insights and true life conversations with individuals who have embraced diverse religious and political ideologies By intertwining these narratives with the region s deeply rooted cultural practices the book presents a compelling human lens to understand MENA s complexities This rare and thought provoking study seamlessly balances traditional and modern perspectives emphasizing the MENA region s pivotal role at the intersection of Western powers and the Global South For readers seeking to grasp the intricate dynamics of a region that continues to influence and adapt to an ever changing global order this book serves as an indispensable resource The British Empire and the Hajj John Slight, 2015-09-21 The British Empire governed more than half the world's Muslims John Slight traces the empire's complex interactions with the Hajj the annual pilgrimage to Mecca from the 1860s when an outbreak of cholera led Britain to engage reluctantly in medical regulation of pilgrims to the Suez Crisis of 1956 He gives voice to pilgrims and officials alike Image and Imperialism in the Ottoman Revolutionary Press, 1908-1911 Palmira Brummett, 2000-03-02 An illustrated work focusing on the ways in which satirical publications revealed evolution in Ottoman society Longman Companion to the Formation of the European Empires, 1488-1920 Muriel E. Chamberlain, 2014-06-11 The European empires as they existed from the Age of Discovery until after the First World War shaped the modern world So great has been their political economic and cultural influence that to fully understand contemporary history and events it is essential to have an understanding of the imperial past This book is an impressive achievement It brings together in one comprehensive volume all the essential facts and figures relating to the process of empire building by the European powers It complements the Longman Companion to European Decolonisation in the Twentieth Century by the same author together they help to explain why different empires had different philosophies dissolved in different ways and left different legacies Americans in a Splintering Europe Mark Strecker, 2018-11-21 World War I began in August 1914 the United States did not enter the conflict until April 1917 During those nearly three years of neutrality a small number of Americans did experience the horrors of the war zones of Europe Some ran for their lives as refugees while others like journalists and doctors headed toward the fighting Missionaries in Persia Iran and the Ottoman Empire became witnesses to both the Armenian genocide and the persecution of Assyrian Christians This history focuses on the war from the perspective of ordinary people who found themselves in the midst of what was then the most destructive and bloody war in history Cyprus David Hannay, 2005-05-27 The Cyprus problem has defeated all attempts to resolve it for more than forty years From 1996 onwards the UN with strong support from the US the UK and other EU members mounted the most sustained of all the efforts to reach an agreement so that a reunited Cyprus could join the EU in May 2004 Although it came closer to success than any previous attempt this one failed too From his unique position as the former British Special Representative for Cyprus Lord formerly Sir David Hannay tells the story of these negotiations What results is a revealing first hand account of a profoundly complex situation an exceptional reference point for all those interested in the region Sex, Gender and the Sacred Joanna de Groot, Sue Morgan, 2014-04-03 Sex Gender and the Sacred presents a multi faith multi disciplinary collection of essays that explore the interlocking narratives of religion and gender encompassing 4 000 years of history Contains readings relating to sex and religion that encompass 4 000 years of gender history Features new research in religion and gender across diverse cultures periods and religious traditions Presents multi faith and multi disciplinary perspectives with significant comparative potential Offers original theories and concepts relating to gender religion and sexuality Includes innovative interpretations of the connections between visual verbal and material aspects of particular religious traditions Exporting empire Christopher Prior,2017-03-01 For Africans rank and file colonial officials were the most visible manifestation of British imperial power But in spite of their importance in administering such vast imperial territories the attitudes of officials who served between the end of the nineteenth century and the Second World War as well as what shaped such attitudes have yet to be examined in any systematic way In this original and revisionist work Prior draws upon an enormous array of private and official papers to address some key questions about the colonial services How did officials education and training affect the ways that they engaged with Africa How did officials relate to one another How did officials seek to understand Africa and Africans How did they respond to infrastructural change How did they deal with anti colonial nationalism This work will be of value to students and lecturers alike interested in British imperial and African history Empire Found Daniel F. Silva,2022-09-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Empire Found Racial Identities and Coloniality in Twenty First Century Portuguese Popular Cultures examines how the discourses and narratives of Portuguese imperial exceptionalism and Portuguese racial identity developed during the last centuries of Portuguese settler colonialism continue to inform an array of cultural production and consumption in the four decades since decolonization By examining a range of contemporary popular cultural production literature football musical production and celebrity culture in critical conversation with intellectual production of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Empire Found examines how narratives of Portuguese racial hybridity and indeterminacy operate alongside ongoing structures of coloniality and white supremacy in the realms of cultural production I argue that these implied or overt historical dialogues carried out through cultural production are integral to the very reproduction of the Portuguese nation state apparatus as well as its racial structures and claims to whiteness in the wake of decolonization and marginal integration into the European Union Jesus the Kalimatullah Binod Peter Senapati,2009 Land of War William Nester,2023-05-01 War in Europe began with the first human migrants Rival bands fought for thousands of years before the Greeks and Romans began writing about their military history first as legend for instance the hero Achilles battling the Trojans and then as fact War developed from sticks and stones to bronze iron and steel including armor and edged weapons Then came gunpowder guns and cannons which eventually replaced edged weapons Finally in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries technology exploded railroads steamships telegraphs machine guns automobiles airplanes and tanks enabled European states to muster equip arm transport and command more men than ever before with more firepower than ever before In the past seventy five years atomic weapons changed the military landscape of Europe as have the internet and cyber warfare In this colorful new telling of European warfare and indeed European history through the continent s all too numerous wars and conflicts William Nester describes millennia of armed conflict He covers the greatest hits of military history both ancient and current Thermopylae the Peloponnesian War the wars of the Roman Empire across the continent the Battle of Hastings the Crusades Agincourt Waterloo Napoleon and Wellington the Somme the Spanish Civil War Stalingrad and Normandy Churchill Hitler and Stalin Bosnia and up through Putin s attempts to redraw the map of Europe Nester highlights how warfare has been deeply entwined with European statesmanship and undergirds modern institutions such as NATO and the European Union Europe s sense of itself is bound up in its military history Land of War is an epic odyssey from Europe s mythic origins through its latest violent conflicts The Passing of the Turkish Empire in Europe Bernard Granville Baker,1913 Catalogue Number.
