Oral Transmission and the Dream Narratives of Matthew 1-2 Alistair N. Shaw,2019-10-10 The first Gospel has traditionally been considered a very Jewish work Recent scholarship has suggested some Hellenistic influence The issue is explored in this work with attention focused on the dream narratives of the first two chapters An investigation is carried out using a new methodology The memory techniques used in an oral or semi literate society are explored A search is made for such techniques in Matthew and these are then compared with similar devices in a wide range of literature Old Testament contemporary Jewish Greek and Roman The intention is that literary practice should help to clarify the cultural setting in which Matthew functions This is a work which will interest New Testament scholars with a focus on Gospel studies and oral transmission It may also appeal to some classical scholars or those with a specialized interest in Josephus Matthew

Rodney Reeves, 2017-11-07 A new commentary for today's world The Story of God Bible Commentary explains and illuminates each passage of Scripture in light of the Bible's grand story The first commentary series to do so SGBC offers a clear and compelling exposition of biblical texts guiding everyday readers in how to creatively and faithfully live out the Bible in their own contexts Its story-centric approach is ideal for pastors students Sunday school teachers and laypeople alike Each volume employs three main easy-to-use sections designed to help readers live out God's story LISTEN to the Story Includes complete NIV text with references to other texts at work in each passage encouraging the reader to hear it within the Bible's grand story EXPLAIN the Story Explores and illuminates each text as embedded in its canonical and historical setting LIVE the Story Reflects on how each text can be lived today and includes contemporary stories and illustrations to aid preachers teachers and students Matthew Matthew's ability to draw his readers into the narrative world helping us not only to see the kingdom of heaven coming to earth in the ministry of Jesus but also to experience it moves us from being visitors to the gospel story to becoming participants in it Who Jesus is was the driving force behind Matthew's Gospel Edited by Scot McKnight and Tremper Longman III and written by a number of top-notch theologians The Story of God Bible Commentary series will bring relevant balanced and clear-minded theological insight to any biblical education or ministry A Theology of Matthew's Gospel

Michael J. Wilkins, 2025-10-07 A Theology of Matthew's Gospel develops the perspective that Matthew wrote his Gospel to identify defend and proclaim Jesus Immanuel God with us as the Davidic Messiah who fulfilled the OT expectations of humanity's redemption Matthew's Gospel establishes Jesus's identity as the heir to the promises of Israel's throne through King David and heir to the promises of blessing to all the nations through the patriarch Abraham 1:1 So this first Gospel offers evangelistic hope in Jesus's message of the gospel to Jews contending that they should turn to Jesus as their long-awaited Messiah Matt 11:2-6 But strikingly Matthew's Gospel also offers evangelistic hope to Gentiles emphasizing that salvation through Jesus Messiah is available to all the nations 28:19 The book emphasizes the three horizons that comprise Matthew's gospel history theology and literature The first horizon focuses on Jesus's history ministry Here Matthew provides for us a record of God's activities in history in the arrival of Jesus Messiah and the kingdom of heaven The second horizon develops Matthew's theological perspective for his audience's Here we attempt to understand and isolate Matthew's unique theological perspective of God's activities in Jesus Messiah This is a central focus emphasizing Matthew's theological perspective of the Old Testament Christology the kingdom of heaven discipleship the Church church Israel past present and future the death and resurrection of Jesus mission commission and eschatology eternity The third horizon emphasizes today's reader's engaging with Matthew's Gospel as literature Here we attempt to capture the significance of the perspective of today's reader's understanding of Jesus Messiah's activities in history and Matthew's theological perspective for the contemporary church In this book we view Matthew's perspective of God's activities in Jesus's unfolding earthly ministry The alternating sections of narrative and discourse provide for his readers Jesus's example to follow and Jesus's words to obey Therefore Matthew's Gospel is at least in part a manual on discipleship to Jesus Messiah in the kingdom of heaven In the six Narratives Matthew reveals Jesus's true identity in his deeds and introduces themes that will lead to instructions to Jesus's disciples in the Discourses The six Narratives provide the example that Jesus's disciples are commanded to obey In the five Discourses Matthew records Jesus's instructions commands parables directives and prophecies that will guide his followers in their discipleship to Jesus until the end of the age Combined the narratives of Jesus's life provide Jesus's example to follow and the discourses give Jesus's instructions to obey and are the basis of our ongoing transformation to become like Jesus

The Gospel According to Matthew Leon Morris, 1992 Throughout the history of the Christian Church the Gospel of Matthew has been considered the most important portrait of Jesus' life and message Containing Jesus' Sermon on the Mount and a uniquely rich collection of parables among many other things Matthew has made a major contribution to the church throughout the centuries and it still has much to say to the church today This superb commentary in the Pillar series explores the meaning and relevance of Matthew in an eminently straightforward fashion Leon Morris writes for readers who use commentaries to discover further what the Bible means Throughout he makes clear what he considers to be the meaning of the Greek text that Matthew has bequeathed to the church A perceptive introduction precedes Morris's warmhearted verse by verse exposition of Matthew an exposition based on his own literal translation of the text Now a standard reference work on the Gospel of Matthew this mature evangelically oriented commentary will continue to meet the needs of students pastor and general readers alike Jacket flap

The Script of Teaching KHRITISH SWARGIARY, 2025-04-01 Welcome to The Script of Teaching Theory Practice and Innovation This book is not merely a compilation of educational theories and practices it is an invitation to view teaching as an evolving narrative a script that we as educators continually write revise and perfect My journey through the landscape of education has been shaped by a profound respect for historical foundations an enthusiasm for innovation and an unwavering commitment to equity These pillars form the bedrock of this work guiding both its content and its purpose The inspiration for this book emerged from my classroom experiences and reflections on the dynamic nature of teaching Education much like a theatrical performance is not static It adapts evolves and responds to the changing contexts of society technology and human needs Just as a playwright crafts a script that guides actors through a compelling story educators design learning experiences that guide students through their educational journey This analogy which permeates the book is not merely poetic but practical offering a framework for understanding how we can create meaningful and transformative educational experiences The structure of this book mirrors the developmental arc of teaching itself We begin with the Historical Foundations of Teaching Theory tracing the evolution of educational thought from ancient philosophers like Socrates and Plato to Enlightenment thinkers such as Locke and Rousseau We then explore the Theoretical

Perspectives in Teaching examining behaviorism cognitivism constructivism critical pedagogy and connectivism each offering unique insights into how humans learn and how we can facilitate that learning From theory we transition to practice delving into the Anatomy of a Lesson where curriculum design is approached as scriptwriting and instructional delivery is enhanced through narrative techniques We then reflect on the realities of teaching in diverse environments urban rural and digital each presenting distinct challenges and opportunities The discussion of Innovation in Teaching Methodologies follows where blended learning project based learning and the role of artificial intelligence are explored as tools for creating inclusive and engaging educational experiences The book culminates in a forward looking examination of The Future of Teaching where trends like personalized learning gamification virtual reality and the concept of a global classroom are analyzed Throughout my voice as an educator concerned with balancing tradition innovation and equity is consistently present offering both critical analysis and hopeful vision This book is written for educators at all stages of their careers for policymakers shaping educational systems and for anyone with a stake in the future of learning It is my sincere hope that The Script of Teaching will not only inform but inspire a catalyst for thoughtful reflection and bold action in our collective pursuit of educational excellence

Who Created Christianity? Craig Evans, Aaron White, 2021-10-05 Who Created Christianity is a collection of essays by top international Christian scholars who desire to reinforce the relationship that Paul had with Jesus and Christianity There is a general sense today among Christians in certain circles that Paul s teachings to the early Christian church are thought to be rogue even clashing at times with Jesus words Yet these essays set out to prove that the tradition that Paul passes on is one received from Jesus not separate from it The essays in this volume come from a diverse and international group of scholars They offer up to date studies of the teachings of Paul and how the specific teachings directly relate to the earlier teachings of Jesus This volume explores with even greater focus than ever before the tradition from which Paul emerges and the specific teachings that are part of this tradition This collection of essays proposes a complementary work to the work of David Wenham and his thesis that Paul was indeed not the founder of Christianity or the creator of Christian dogma instead he was a faithful disciple and a conveyer of a prior Christian tradition Includes essays by well known Christian scholars such as Craig Blomberg Alister McGrath N T Wright Michael Bird Greg Beale and more Paul and Jesus Issues of Continuity and Discontinuity in Their Discussion by Stanley E Porter How and Why Paul Invented Christian Theology by N T Wright The Origins of Paul s Gospel by Graham H Twelftree When Paul Met Jesus How an Idea Continues to Be Lost in History Past and Present by Stanley E Porter Paul and the Jesus Tradition An Old Question and Some New Answers by Rainer Riesner Continuity and Development in the Ministries of Jesus and of Paul by Christoph W Stenschke Paul s Significant Other in the We Passages by Joan E Taylor Whose Gospel Is It Anyway The Glory of Christ in the Prophetic Ministry of Paul according to His My Gospel and Our Gospel by Aaron W White David Wenham The Little Apocalypse Paul and Silas by Bruce Chilton The Parallels between 1 and 2 Thessalonians against the Background of Ancient Parallel Letters

Melancthon Williams Jacobus, Edward Everett Nourse, Andrew Constantinides Zenos, 1909 Resolving the Tension of Jesus's Mission in Matthew's Ancient Biography Jerry D. Breen, 2024-10-03 Jerry D. Breen argues that reading Matthew and all the Gospels as ancient biography is the necessary next step for Gospel studies In particular Breen contends that more specific comparisons should be made between the Gospels and ancient literature Breen stresses that this reading invites narrative critics to place more emphasis on examining the use of sources and the importance of intertextual and historical information that the author introduces to the text Breen places emphasis on the relationship between Jews and non Jews in ancient Galilee and Palestine and challenges the long supported theory that Jesus did not minister to non Jews beyond two or three exceptions Demonstrating that Jesus is inclusive of everyone who comes to him even though he was sent primarily to the Jews Breen argues that the portrait which Matthew creates is one of a Jewish Messiah who is on a mission to restore Israel so that the restored people of God can bless the nations Concluding that rather than two conflicting missions the audience of the gospel is encouraged to view the healing of non Jews during Jesus s ministry as further proof that the Jewish Messiah is bringing restoration to Israel
