

Government: The Final Study Guide

Understand how our country came to be, how the system was designed to work, how things have changed over time. After studying each chapter, consider the changes according to how important you think they are. Consider some issues that are important to you that are not included, perhaps it's not what you think is important, but I might argue that it's important. Consider the issues that are important to you that are not included. Consider the issues that are important to you that are not included. Consider the issues that are important to you that are not included.
