Cities and Sexualities Phil Hubbard,2013-03-01 From the hotspots of commercial sex through to the suburbia of twitching curtains urban life and sexualities appear inseparable Cities are the source of our most familiar images of sexual practice and are the spaces where new understandings of sexuality take shape In an era of global business and tourism cities are also the hubs around which a global sex trade is organised and where virtual sex content is obsessively produced and consumed Detailing the relationships between sexed bodies sexual subjectivities and forms of intimacy Cities and Sexualities explores the role of the city in shaping our sexual lives At the same time it describes how the actions of urban governors city planners the police and judiciary combine to produce cities in which some sexual proclivities and tastes are normalised and others excluded In so doing it maps out the diverse sexual landscapes of the city from spaces of courtship coupling and cohabitation through to sites of adult entertainment prostitution and pornography Considering both the normative geographies of heterosexuality and monogamy as well as urban geographies of radical queer sex this book provides a unique perspective on the relationship between sex and the city Cities and Sexualities offers a wide overview of the state of the art in geographies and sociologies of sexuality as well as an empirically grounded account of the forms of desire that animate the erotic city It describes the diverse sexual landscapes that characterise both the contemporary Western city as well as cities in the global South The book features a wide range of boxed case studies as well as suggestions for further reading at the end each chapter It will appeal to undergraduate students studying Geography Urban Studies Gender Studies and Sociology

Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh,2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women s involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women s sexualized experiences the analysis draws on a range of different theoretical understandings that address power privilege and the gaze An important contribution to a range of debates this book will appeal to students and researchers in tourism geography sociology gender studies and cultural theory
