Making Model Boats with Styrene Richard Webb, 2003 Naval Ship Models of World War II in 1/1250 and 1/1200 Scales Robert K. Liu, 2021-02-28 A guide for collectors and modelers packed with photos technical information practical advice and history The origins of 1 1250 and 1 1200 scale models can be traced back to the first years of the twentieth century and their use as identification aids by the military during the First World War When peace came the manufacturers aimed their increasingly sophisticated products at collectors and ever since then acquiring enhancing modifying or scratch building miniature ship models has been an avidly pursued hobby around the world This new book focuses on models of the ships of the Second World War and the author addresses all the practical issues that might confront collectors who like to enhance convert and modify their models or even scratch build models of ships not commercially available The book covers both Allied and Axis warships naval airplanes merchant conversions and even an Italian armed schooner and provides historic and technical information on the ships represented as well as practical advice on modeling them including twenty five chapters covering everything from initial production techniques such as spin casting silicon mold casting resin casting die casting plastic mold injection and 3D printing through techniques for enhancing and modifying models to eventually researching and scratch building an uncommon ship or type The focus is always on particular vessels and the vast array covered builds into a fascinating panorama of the vessels that fought across the world s oceans in that era The combination of intriguing background and historical information combined with detailed practical information and more than 300 stunning photographs makes this book irresistible to collectors modelers or anyone with an interest in the navies of the Second World War Revenge of the Movie Monster Models Mark C. Glassy, 2024-05-07 Science fiction and fantasy movies of the 20th century feature many iconic figures and monsters and the ability to create and own many of them in the form of models provides fans with an opportunity to mingle amongst the greats and not so greats This book is a collection of figures and dioramas of monsters from both science fiction and fantasy films Models are presented in chronological order decade by decade starting with films in the silent era and running through the end of the century The building and painting of the figures and dioramas of various scenes from these films some more accurately than others provides an opportunity to preserve key moments in these movies The Modeler's Manual Robert Schleicher, 1981 Flying Models, 1958

Sixty Years of Airfix Models Jeremy Brook, 2015-06-30 The best known and most important manufacturer of plastic model kits in the UK Airfix has been at the forefront of the industry since 1955 when the first Airfix aircraft kit appeared in UK branches of Woolworth s The kits were made to a constant scale and covered a wide variety of subjects from aircraft to birds and from tanks to dinosaurs In 1981 the famous London based company closed down and only the kits survived intact For the next twenty five years Airfix was run by Palitoy and later Humbrol but suffered from a lack of investment In 2006 Hornby Hobbies Ltd the train and Scalextric manufacturer bought the ailing company and transformed it Money and resources were ploughed into the range and today Airfix releases around twenty new kits per year designed to an incredibly high standard. The old kits of the 1950s and 1960s are gradually being replaced by new state of the art tooling all bearing that most prestigious name Airfix. Published to coincide with the sixtieth anniversary of the first Airfix aircraft kit, Sixty Years of Airfix Models tells the full story year by year of the company and its products. Illustrated throughout with colour photographs of kits, box art and completed models.

How to Build Scale Models FineScale Modeler, 1992 Model Railroad Craftsman, 1987 Air Trails Pictorial, 1955 Nautical Research Journal, 2002 Model Railroader, 1961
