Multinational Corporations in Brazil and Mexico Richard S. Newfarmer, Willard Fritz Mueller, 1975 The Liability of the Holding Company for the Debts of its Insolvent Subsidiaries Andrew Muscat, 2016-12-05 This work deals with the liability of the holding company for the debts of its insolvent subsidiaries In analyzing the current position under English law the work challenges as outmoded and inadequate the virtual dogma that a holding company is not answerable for the debts of its insolvent subsidiaries The study identifies four separate and distinct types of behavioural practices within corporate groups which may prejudice the interests of external creditors or otherwise constitute an abuse of the corporate form the subservient subsidiary situation the inadequately financed subsidiary situation the integrated economic enterprise situation and the group persona situation After weighing the various arguments for and against a change in the law and concluding that reform is called for the study proceeds to submit some radical proposals for reform The basic thrust of the reform proposals is that in a number of well defined situations entity law should give way to an enterprise analysis and holding company liability should be imposed for the debts of insolvent subsidiaries Global Business Associations Karsten Ronit, 2018-10-26 Global business tends to be perceived as a number of individual but powerful multinational corporations capable of controlling markets and influencing political decisions in fact global business is highly organized through a plethora of associations that bring together competing companies and conflicting national businesses Indeed global business associations have a long history and with accelerated globalization further opportunities emerge for unified business action This book fills a significant gap in the current literature examining the pivotal role of global business associations and providing a concise and accessible overview of their different functions in a range of institutional contexts Beginning by clarifying the concept of global business associations the author puts their role into a historical and contemporary context in which their economic social and political functions are sketched Their historical origin is outlined including the proliferation of global associations in the twentieth and twenty first centuries He then moves on to explore and analyse the different types of actors explaining key categories and their place in the organization of global business with chapters on peak associations e g ICC and WEF industry associations alliances as well as clubs and think tanks and facilitators Covering the history current role and future evolution of this dynamic category of associations this work will be essential reading for students and scholars of international political economy international relations international organizations and global governance

Implications of Multinational Firms for World Trade and Investment and for U.S. Trade and Labor United States Tariff Commission, United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance, 1973 Acquisitions by Emerging Multinational Corporations Johannes Distler, 2017-07-27 This thesis analyzes the motivation and performance of 403 acquisitions made by emerging multinational corporations EMNCs in Western Europe and North America between 1994 and 2013 The findings indicate that most EMNCs were motivated to acquire in order to obtain access to the upstream and downstream know how of their target firms In addition the thesis event study results demonstrate that EMNCs on average generated value for their shareholders with their acquisitions over short periods around acquisition announcement This result is particularly significant since similar studies on buying firms from developed markets have frequently come to the conclusion that acquirers destroy shareholder value Multinational Corporations United States. Congress. Senate.

Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on International Trade,1973 State Taxation of Interstate Commerce United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on State Taxation of Interstate Commerce,1973 Global Business Regulation John Braithwaite,Peter Drahos,2000-02-13 Across an amazing sweep of the critical areas of business regulation from contract intellectual property and corporations law to trade telecommunications labour standards drugs food transport and environment this book confronts the question of how the regulation of business has shifted from national to global institutions Based on interviews with 500 international leaders in business and government this book examines the role played by global institutions such as the WTO the OECD IMF Moody s and the World Bank as well as various NGOs and significant individuals The authors argue that effective and decent global regulation depends on the determination of individuals to engage with powerful agendas and decision making bodies that would otherwise be dominated by concentrated economic interests This book will become a standard reference for readers in business law politics and international relations
