My Mother Class :

Women and Social Class Pat Mahony, Christine Zmroczek, 2004-01-14 This text focuses on women's theorized experience of social class from a range of feminist perspectives contextualized in relation to where they live Japanese Women, Class and the Tea Ceremony Kaeko Chiba, 2010-09-13 This book examines the complex relationship between gender and class among Japanese tea ceremony practitioners in Japan. It argues that tea has a cultural, economic, social, and symbolic value and is used as a tool to improve gender and class equality. Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna, 2015 Academic study of children's literature has explored various aspects of diversity; however, little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities. This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people. Engaging and highly accessible, this text will assist teachers, teacher educators, and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization, supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues. Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends, theoretical frameworks, and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children's literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities. It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K-12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination, empathy, and understanding of self and others. Featuring author portraits, comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children's books that depict characters with disabilities, and read-on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field, this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators. Archive of Tongues Moon Charania, 2023-06-30 In Archive of Tongues, Moon Charania explores feminine dispossession and the brown diaspora through a reflection on the life of her mother. Drawing on her mother's memories and stories of migration, violence, sexuality, queerness, domesticity, and the intimate economies of everyday life, Charania conceptualizes her mother's tongue as an object of theory and an archive of brown intimate life. By presenting a mode of storytelling that is sensual and melancholic, piercing and sharp, Charania recovers otherwise silenced modes of brown mothers' survival, disobedience, and meaning-making that are often only lived out in invisible intimate spaces and too often disappear into them. In narrating her mother's tongue as both metaphor for and material reservoir of other ways of knowing, Charania gestures to the afflictions, limits, and failures of feminist, queer, and postcolonial scholarly interrogations and the consequences of closing the archive of the brown mother. Blossom of the Golden Bell Hwain Chang Lee, 2016-11-03 The Bible has many stories about women. In these stories of women, we see a reflection of ourselves and our own reality, physical, spiritual, and social. Like these women, Hwain's mother possessed deep faith in her Lord. Korean Christian women build their lives on two foundations. The first is the hard reality of the lives of women in the Bible. The second is the long history of Korean women born into a system of Confucian belief. Blossom of the Golden Bell is a story about Hwain's mother. The story is a mingling and converging of two realities the hard lives of the women of the Bible and the history Korean women are born into Hwain's mother gave Hwain life and then gave her own life to Hwain She influenced and taught Hwain spiritually and socially Hwain cannot forget the stories of her mother's past nor leave them unrecorded Therefore this book is Hwain's gift to her mother Hwain's wish is for the stories contained in this book to reflect light onto other women just as it did for Hwain
