The Life of My Teacher Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, 2017-07-11 The Sixth Ling Rinpoche 1903-83 was a towering figure in Tibetan Buddhism. Combining great learning with great humility, he was ordained by the Thirteenth Dalai Lama and went on to serve as the head of the Geluk tradition and as the senior tutor to the present Dalai Lama. In temperament and wisdom, he had a profound influence on the Dalai Lama's spiritual development and he became a steadying presence for His Holiness during the chaotic changes that defined the Tibetan experience of the twentieth century, with the invasion of their country by Communist forces and the subsequent rebuilding of their culture in India. Ling Rinpoche's extensive travels among exiled communities abroad and across India buoyed the spirits of the Tibetan diaspora, and the training and activities of this consummate Buddhist master, here told by the Dalai Lama in the traditional Tibetan style, will inspire and amaze.

"MY HORSE, MY TEACHER, MY FRIEND" A Collection Of Life Lessons, Observations & Reflections

From A Life With Horses. Volume 1 Andree L. Ralph, 2015-06-18 There is a well-known saying that when the student is ready, the teacher will appear. Buddhist Proverb: well, my teachers have appeared in the form of horses and continue to do so. Anyone who has spent any length of time around horses cannot have failed to have observed some of the profound lessons they are able to teach us. The question, however, is whether we have actually learnt from them. Inside the covers of this book, you will find some of those lessons that I am now sharing with you so that their legacy can grow and ripple outwards. There have been so many lessons, but these are some of the most important. They are presented through pictures, thoughts, and observations, including those given to me by our horses and ponies and also through some of the journal and blog entries I have made to illustrate the lesson. They are not in any particular order and can be read as a kind of journey as we have experienced them or as individual gifts of motivation and learning, whichever suits you.
