Missing Out Adam Phillips, 2025-10-16 From the leading psychoanalyst Adam Phillips comes Missing Out a transformative book about the lives we wish we had and what they can teach us about who we are All of us lead two parallel lives the one we are actively living and the one we feel we should have had or might yet have As hard as we try to exist in the moment the unlived life is an inescapable presence a shadow at our heels And this itself can become the story of our lives an elegy to unmet needs and sacrificed desires We become haunted by the myth of our own potential of what we have in ourselves to be or to do And this can make of our lives a perpetual falling short But what happens if we remove the idea of failure from the equation With his flair for graceful paradox the acclaimed psychoanalyst Adam Phillips suggests that if we accept frustration as a way of outlining what we really want satisfaction suddenly becomes possible To crave a life without frustration is to crave a life without the potential to identify and accomplish our desires In this elegant compassionate and absorbing book Phillips draws deeply on his own clinical experience as well as on the works of Shakespeare and Freud of D W Winnicott and William James to suggest that frustration not getting it and and getting away with it are all chapters in our unlived lives and may be essential to the one fully lived

He Wants You to Know Beverly Lipford Carroll, 2013-07-03 How can we understand what we do not know How can we comprehend what is outside our experience God is holy we are sinful God is all powerful and all knowing and perfect love and we are not He knows us completely and it is the desire of his heart for his children to know him The best teachers will patiently lead students one step at a time using what students do know to increase their understanding of what they need to learn God is the master teacher God reveals himself to his children in the Bible and in everyday experiences using what they do understand to help them learn the truth about who he is He takes what is familiar to them and says At least in some ways I AM like that It is not enough to have knowledge of what God said we must have understanding of what he wants us to learn Examine thirteen metaphors God uses to describe himself and find deeper understanding of this God who wants you to know him
