Emily Oster,2022-08-02 The instant New York Times bestseller A Behavioral Scientist Notable Book of 2021 Emily Oster dives into the data on parenting issues cuts through the clutter and gives families the bottom line to help them make better decisions Good Morning America From the bestselling author of Expecting Better and Cribsheet the next step in data driven parenting from economist Emily Oster In The Family Firm Brown professor of economics and mom of two Emily Oster offers a classic business school framework for data driven parents to think more deliberately about the key issues of the elementary years school health extracurricular activities and more Unlike the hourly challenges of infant parenting the big questions in this age come up less frequently But we live with the consequences of our decisions for much longer What s the right kind of school and at what age should a particular kid start How do you encourage a healthy diet Should kids play a sport and how seriously How do you think smartly about encouraging children s independence Along with these bigger questions Oster investigates how to navigate the complexity of day to day family logistics Making these decisions is less about finding the specific answer and more about taking the right approach Parents of this age are often still working in baby mode which is to say under stress and on the fly That is a classic management problem and Oster takes a page from her time as a business school professor at the University of Chicago to show us that thoughtful business process can help smooth out tough family decisions The Family Firm is a smart and winning guide to how to think clearly and with less ambient stress about the key decisions of the elementary school years Parenting is a full time job It s time we start treating it like one The Kindergarten and First Grade ,1923 The Distance Learning Playbook, Grades K-12 Douglas Fisher,Nancy Frey,John Hattie,Corwin,2020-06-15 Effective teaching is effective teaching no matter where it occurs The pandemic teaching of mid 2020 was not really distance learning but rather crisis teaching But starting now teachers have the opportunity to prepare for distance learning with purpose and intent using what works best to accelerate students learning all the while maintaining an indelible focus on equity Harnessing the insights and experience of renowned educators Douglas Fisher Nancy Frey and John Hattie The Distance Learning Playbook applies the wisdom and evidence of VISIBLE LEARNING research to understand what works best with distance learning Spanning topics from teacher student relationships teacher credibility and clarity instructional design assessments and grading this comprehensive playbook details the research and evidence based strategies teachers can mobilize to deliver high impact learning in an online virtual and distributed environment This powerful guide includes Learning Intentions and Success Criteria for each module to track your own learning and model evidence based teacher practices for meaningful learning A diversity of instructional approaches including direct instruction peer learning and independent work that foster student self regulation and move learning to deep and transfer levels Discussion of equity challenges associated with distance learning along with examples of how teachers can work to ensure that equity gains that have been realized are not lost Special guidance for teachers of young children who are learning from a distance Videos of the authors and teachers discussing a wide variety of distance learning topics Space to write and reflect on current practices and plan future instruction The Distance Learning Playbook is the essential hands on guide to preparing and delivering distance learning experiences that are truly effective and impactful To purchase from an Authorized Corwin Distributor click here A Spanish translation of the Distance Learning Playbook Grades K 12 Aprendizaje a Distancia Guia Guia de Preescolar a Bachillerato can be purchased by contacting Irene Yepez from Editorial Trillas at vigaexporta trillas mx

Department of the Air Force, 1978      Scouting , Published by the Boy Scouts of America for all BSA registered adult volunteers and professionals Scouting magazine offers editorial content that is a mixture of information instruction and inspiration designed to strengthen readers abilities to better perform their leadership roles in Scouting and also to assist them as parents in strengthening families      Handbook of Field Experiments Esther Duflo, Abhijit Banerjee, 2017-03-21
Handbook of Field Experiments Volume Two explains how to conduct experimental research presents a catalog of research to date and describes which areas remain to be explored The new volume includes sections on field experiments in education in developing countries how to design social protection programs a section on how to combat poverty and updates on data relating to the impact and determinants of health levels in low income countries Separating itself from circumscribed debates of specialists this volume surpasses the many journal articles and narrowly defined books written by practitioners This ongoing series will be of particular interest to scholars working with experimental methods Users will find results from politics education and more Balances methodological insights with analyses of principal findings and suggestions for further research Appeals broadly to social scientists seeking to develop an expertise in field experiments Written in a language that is accessible to graduate students and non specialist economists      Every Step in Canning: The Cold-Pack Method Grace Viall Gray, 2019-11-25 In Every Step in Canning The Cold Pack Method Grace Viall Gray combines practical guidance with an accessible literary style to explore the nuances of food preservation Through detailed instructions and illustrative anecdotes this foundational text delves into the cold pack canning method emphasizing its significance in the context of early 20th century domestic practices Gray s meticulous approach not only addresses the technical aspects of canning but also situates the practice within a burgeoning movement toward self sufficiency and home economics that resonated with readers of her era Grace Viall Gray an influential figure in 20th century domestic science dedicated her life to educating homemakers on the art of preservation and nutrition Drawing upon her extensive experience in both cooking and community education Gray aspired to demystify the canning process empowering women in an age marked by shifts in food sourcing and household management Her work reflects a deep commitment to culinary innovation and the importance of tradition in food preparation This book is a vital resource for anyone interested in home canning whether novice or experienced Gray s expert tips coupled with her clear engaging writing style make Every Step in Canning an essential addition to both culinary libraries and the sustainable cooking practices of today Better Fruit, Better Vegetables ,1917 American Primary Teacher ,1914 The Banker-farmer ,1913 Daughters and Granddaughters of Farmworkers Barbara Wells,2013-11-15 In Daughters and Granddaughters of Farmworkers Barbara Wells examines the work and family lives of Mexican American women in a community near the U S Mexican border in California s Imperial County Decades earlier their Mexican parents and grandparents had made the momentous decision to migrate to the United States as farmworkers This book explores how that decision has worked out for these second and third generation Mexican Americans Wells provides stories of the struggles triumphs and everyday experiences of these women She analyzes their narratives on a broad canvas that includes the social structures that create the barriers constraints and opportunities that have shaped their lives The women have constructed far more settled lives than the immigrant generation that followed the crops but many struggle to provide adequately for their families These women aspire to achieve the middle class lives of the American Dream But upward mobility is an elusive goal The realities of life in a rural agricultural border community strictly limit social mobility for these descendants of immigrant farm laborers Reliance on family networks is a vital strategy for meeting the economic challenges they encounter Wells illustrates clearly the ways in which the long shadow of farm work continues to permeate the lives and prospects of these women and their families Ms. Moffett's First Year Abby Goodnough,2009-04-28 In summer of 2000 legal secretary Donna Moffett answered an ad for the New York City Teaching Fellows program which sought to recruit talented professionals from other fields to teach in some of the city s worst schools Seven weeks later she was in a first grade classroom in Flatbush Brooklyn nearly completely unprepared for what she was about to face New York Times education reporter Abby Goodnough followed Donna Moffett through her first year as a teacher writing a frontpage award winning series that galvanized discussion nationwide Now she has expanded that series into a book that through the riveting story of Moffett s experiences explores the gulf between the rhetoric of education reform and the realities of the public school classroom Ms Moffett s First Year is neither a Hollywood friendly tale of one person making a difference nor a reductive indictment of the public education system It is rather a provocative portrait of the inadequacy of good intentions of the challenges of educating poor and immigrant populations and of a well meaning but underprepared woman becoming a teacher the hard way While the story takes place in New York Ms Moffett s first year is a metaphor for the experiences of teachers everywhere in America one that illuminates the philosophical economic political and ideological dilemmas that have come more and more to determine their experience and their students experiences in the classroom
