Durban Dialogues, Indian Voice Ashwin Singh, 2017-07-05 Durban Dialogues Indian Voice is an anthology of five engaging and eclectic South African plays by award winning playwright Ashwin Singh. The plays selected namely To House, Duped, Spice n Stuff, Reoca, Light and Beyond the Big Bangs represent the complete array of Singh's storytelling skills in drama as well as satire. Each play reflects in different ways on the complexities and contradictions of life in post Apartheid South Africa and focuses particularly on people of Indian origin and their relationship with other South African communities. The plays present a moving portrait of a unique array of characters and are also punctuated by Singh's trademark humour. Each one is set in Durban, South Africa's third largest and most diverse city and they are described by renowned academic and critic Betty Govinden as undressing Durban as they take us away from the neon lights and candy floss to the reality of the underbelly of post Apartheid urban and suburban existence. Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016

Quality education Muchativugwa L. Hove, Martha Matashu, 2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education, social justice, gendered violence and human rights in South African schools and universities. The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education, social justice imperatives, gendered violence in the lives of women and children and marginalised communities. The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa. Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror, express, project and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate, interrogate, conceptualise, enact and interpret quality education. The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces. This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education, the instances of epistemic disobedience, the political implications of place and power and human rights in theory and practice.
