Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for profit education Those who work in non profit or government owned and operated schools Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment What's more important to humans nutrition or education Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities including education What organizations provide food and who pays for the food

Food is provided by for profit farmers for profit processors for profit wholesalers and for profit retailers Most food is purchased with the consumers own money but a significant amount is purchased by low income individuals using food stamps Why can t education be provided similarly using education stamps We trust for profit enterprises to provide our food Why can t we trust for profit enterprises to provide K 12 education Fearmongers have frightened us and made us into gullible compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods and then contemplate how a for profit K 12 education sector would please and amaze its customers

Can You Beat Churchill? Michael A. Barnhart,2021-06-15 How do you get students to engage in a historical episode or era How do you bring the immediacy and contingency of history to life Michael A Barnhart shares the secret to his award winning success in the classroom with Can You Beat Churchill which encourages role playing for immersive teaching and learning Combating the declining enrollment in humanities classes this innovative approach reminds us how critical learning skills are transmitted to students by reactivating their curiosity and problem solving abilities Barnhart provides advice and procedures both for the use of off the shelf commercial simulations and for the instructor who wishes to custom design a simulation from scratch These reenactments allow students to step into the past requiring them to think and act in ways historical figures might have Students must make crucial or dramatic decisions though these decisions need not align with the historical record In doing so they learn through action and strategic consideration the impact of real individuals and groups of people on the course of history There is a quiet revolution underway in how history is taught to undergraduates Can You Beat Churchill hopes to make it a noisy one

Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy,2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies Development of Quality of Life Theory and Its Instruments Alex C. Michalos, 2017-06-14 The focus of this volume is on the further development of the Quality of Life Theory and the means to measure the concept The volume summarizes Michalos fundamental assumptions about the nature of quality of life or human well being and explains in detail the two variable theory of the quality of life It gives an update of the journal Social Indicators Research after forty years an explanation of the role of community indicators in connecting communities and a critical review of the much publicized Stiglitz Sen and Fitoussi report It deals with the multiple discrepancies theory MDT the empirical theory designed to provide the foundation of the pragmatic theory of value Other concepts discussed in this volume are the stability sensitivity and other different features of measures of domain and life satisfaction and happiness measures of arts related activities and beliefs measures of knowledge attitudes and behaviour concerning sustainable development and the role of quality of life in sustainable development research The volume concludes with discussions on connections between social indicators and communities aspects of community quality of life in Prince George British Columbia and Jasper Alberta and British Columbians expectations and attitudes going into the third millennium Smart University Lindsay Weinberg, 2024-10-08 How surveillance perpetuates long standing injustices woven into the fabric of higher education Higher education increasingly relies on digital surveillance in the United States Administrators consulting firms and education technology vendors are celebrating digital tools as a means of ushering in the age of smart universities By digitally monitoring and managing campus life institutions can supposedly run their services more efficiently strengthen the quality of higher education and better prepare students for future roles in the digital economy Yet in practice these initiatives often perpetuate austerity structural racism and privatization at public universities under the guise of solving higher education s most intractable problems In Smart University Lindsay Weinberg evaluates how this latest era of tech solutions and systems in our schools impacts students abilities to access opportunities and exercise autonomy on their campuses Using historical and textual analysis of administrative discourses university policies conference proceedings grant solicitations news reports tech industry marketing materials and product demonstrations Weinberg argues that these more recent transformations are best understood as part of a longer history of universities supporting the development of technologies that reproduce racial and economic injustice on their campuses and in their communities Aimed at anyone concerned with the future of surveillance on higher education Smart University empowers readers with the knowledge tools and frameworks for contesting and reimagining the role of digital technology on university campuses Bandwidth Recovery Cia Verschelden, 2024-11-13 Bandwidth Recovery explores how students' cognitive resources are diminished by persistent economic insecurity, childhood trauma, and marginalization while offering strategies and interventions to help learners regain the bandwidth they need to succeed in college. When college students feel like they don't belong or are fearful, uncertain, or otherwise prevented from being their authentic selves, much of the mental bandwidth needed for learning is not available. When they are food insecure, financially unstable, or coping with the effects of childhood trauma, cognitive capacity is likewise diminished. Beginning with analysis of the most up-to-date research on the mental and physical impact of poverty, racism, and other forms of social marginalization, Cia Verschelden presents vetted approaches for promoting a growth mindset and self-efficacy in students. Readers will learn to develop supports that build upon students' values and prior knowledge with the goal of creating a sense of belonging and community both in and out of the classroom. New to this edition are updated terminology and discussions of neurodiversity, childhood trauma, economic inequality, and the ongoing effects of the COVID pandemic. This book is intended for all higher education faculty, student affairs professionals, administrators, and scholars interested in creating learning environments where every student has the chance to succeed.

The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis (AMSAC) Joe L. Rempson, 2016-03-12 The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC cannot be solved by the school alone. It is a race problem which can only be solved if we Black males provide the leadership in tackling our three major demons which now mainly account for the problem: IQ lag, fatherless families, crime. AMSAC had its origin about 100 years ago when after the death of Washington DuBois gained ascendancy in our African American Garden of Eden and replaced Washington's brains, property, and character with a civil rights agenda. That agenda has led to a civil rights fixation and our second bondage: Victimology wherein being the victim has become part of our core identity and made us psychological slaves. Rather than being proud and self-reliant, disproportionately we have come to see ourselves as victims who are entitled to system help and special treatment. This bondage, and it is a bondage, vitiates our manhood and the energy and drive required to pursue the adaptation pathway paved by Washington but demonized by DuBois. Return to that pathway and we can confront and conquer AMSAC and our three major demons. Guided by history and the research evidence, this book details how. Its 20 chapters make for long reading, but just by reading the first and last chapters you can get the message. The motto of the proposed evidence-based experimental program, the African American Male Career Pathway Program (AMCAP), A special appeal is made to Black athletes and entertainers to help propagate this motto and support the proposed high school student clubs. Student AMCAPs in its implementation.
