Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa

Governing the Displaced Ali Bhagat, 2024-02-15 Governing the Displaced answers a straightforward question how are refugees governed under capitalism in this moment of heightened global displacement To answer this question Ali Bhagat takes a dual case study approach to explore three dimensions of refugee survival in Paris and Nairobi shelter work and political belonging Bhagat s book makes sense of a global refugee regime along the contradictory fault lines of passive humanitarianism violent exclusion and organized abandonment in the European Union and East Africa Governing the Displaced highlights the interrelated and overlapping features of refugee governance and survival in these seemingly disparate places In its intersectional engagement with theories of racial capitalism with respect to right wing populism labor politics and the everyday forms of exclusion the book is a timely and necessary contribution to the field of migration studies and to political economy

Have Your Yellowcake and Eat It Jack Boulton, 2021-06-26 Have Your Yellowcake and Eat It is a story of men monsters and uranium in Swakopmund a small coastal city in the west of Namibia Founded by German settlers in the late nineteenth century Swakopmund remains a popular holiday destination for Namibians and international visitors alike How do young African men make their home in this peculiar town of pretty beaches and luxury hotels a brutal colonial history and a large uranium mining industry Are their close relations affected by global changes in the price of uranium And how do we describe their life worlds which straddle many homes neighbourhoods and establishments sometimes even existing beyond the limits of the post colonial city Employing a reflexive narrative and based on two year s fieldwork Jack Boulton explores the myriad ways in which intimacy develops and manifests for men in a city defined predominantly by racialised difference and local and global forces of inequality

Countering Violent Extremism in Kenya John Mwangi Githigaro, 2023-12-06 Before the rise of the Al Shabaab Eastern Africa was home to different organizational nodes of the Al Qaeda network Al Qaeda was responsible for many threats of which include the August 7 1998 bombings in Kenya and Tanzania As terrorism threats have evolved over the years countermeasures have continued to do the same Countering Violent Extremism in Kenya Community State and Security Perspectives by John Mwangi Githigaro explores Kenya's historical experiences with terrorism in the pre and post 9/11 periods as a lens to situate how different stakeholders present the threats of extremism and the associated countermeasures they consider as valuable The stakeholders presented throughout this book include security actors society organizations academics and community members Through extended ethnographic research and fieldwork collected from focus groups within Nairobi and Mombasa between 2016 and 2022 Githigaro offers an opportunity to observe the evolution of counterterrorism interventions in Kenya and the dilemmas this has created around primarily state society relations an exploration of how different stakeholders perceive the efficacy of counterterrorism measures and the appraisal of counterterrorism initiative CT interventions that render ongoing CVE interventions less effective

Pornography and Genocide Thomas Trzyna, 2019-06-14 One out of every thirty five women born is killed for cultural or sexual reasons In the twentieth century more women were killed for those reasons than all the people who died in wars Women everywhere live in the higher stages of Gregory Stanton's eight stage genocide scale Pornography contributes to the peril whether in the form of battlefield rape films the rape chants of frat boys or the massive distribution of violent images on the web and through other media The United Nations definition of genocide must be changed to recognize women as a targeted group Pornography and Genocide pulls together the evidence from legal scholars and a myriad of contemporary studies and news accounts from around the world It is time to face the war against women Global Innovation Index 2016 Cornell University, INSEAD, World Intellectual Property Organization, 2016 The Global Innovation Index ranks the innovation performance of 128 countries and economies around the world based on 82 indicators This edition explores the impact of innovation oriented policies on economic growth and development High income and developing countries alike are seeking innovation driven growth through different strategies Some countries are successfully improving their innovation capacity while others still struggle The Statesman's Yearbook 2024 Palgrave Macmillan, 2024-01-03 Now in its 160th edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions Global Innovation Index 2017 Cornell University, INSEAD, World Intellectual Property Organization, 2017 The Global Innovation Index provides detailed metrics about the innovation performance of 127 countries and economies around the world Its 81 indicators explore a broad vision of innovation including political environment education infrastructure and business sophistication This year's report reviews the state of innovation in agriculture and food systems across sectors and geographies Chapters of the report provide more details on this year's theme from academic business and particular country perspectives from leading experts and decision makers Child Rights and Displacement in East Africa Cherie C. Enns, Willibard J. Kombe, 2022-09-01 Focusing on the intersection of spatial justice child rights and planning policy this book investigates the challenges of resettlement in East Africa where half of those displaced are children The challenges created by displacement and resettlement are often considered from an adult centric perspective by planners and humanitarian and development experts The spatial injustice of displacement and resettlement the agency of children and the application of tools such as Child Participatory Vulnerability Index CPVI is siloed commonly overlooked or discounted This book uses a CPVI and rights based assessment of land use policies to investigate resettlement due to conflict and settlement in northern Uganda floods due to climate change in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and urban to rural migration of children due to the AIDS pandemic in Western Kenya Case studies from over a decade of field research are integrated with examples from applied planning projects and policy development in the East Africa region This book uses spatial justice theory to show how child friendly planning approaches can positively promote child rights in the context of resettlement Providing important insights on how to enact child friendly planning in informal settlements refugee camps and displacement camps this book will be of interest to planning and development professionals and researchers across the fields of children's rights Development Studies Planning and African Studies African Philosophy for the Twenty-First Century Jean Godefroy Bidima, Laura Hengehold, 2021-11-26 In Africa the twenty first century began with new challenges surrounding and regarding philosophical discourses Questions of economic and political liberation the displacement of populations and the process of urbanization present ongoing challenges linked to problems such as endemic diseases and famine the restructure of the traditional family gender and the position of women the transmission of culture from past to future generations Changes in labor relations resulting from introduction of financial speculation cutting edge technologies and differential access to digital and older cultural forms have placed real demands on Africans and Africanists working in philosophy This volume explores the ways in which African philosophies express transitional acts those acts by which thought interacts with history as it is being made and by which it assures its own renewal in proposing provisional solutions to historical problems A transitional act combines both the audacity of confrontation and the novelty of creation prudence in the face of risks and anticipation in the face of the unexpected Influential and emerging thinkers from both sides of the Atlantic consider this dual activity in the realm of criticism and imagination public spaces in Africa and the relationship between historical politics and historical poetics Comparative Perspectives on Refugee Youth Education Alexander W. Wiseman, Lisa Damaschke-Deitrick, Ericka L. Galegher, Maureen F. Park, 2019-05-22 This volume explores the shared expectations that education is a panacea for the difficulties that refugees and their receiving countries face This book investigates the ways in which education is both a dream solution as well as a contested landscape for refugee families and students Using comparative cross national perspectives across five continents the editors and contributors critically analyze the educational structures policies and practices intended to support refugee youth transition from conflict and post conflict zones to mainstream classrooms and schools in their new communities

Effective Development Co-operation Debapriya Bhattacharya, Towfiqul Islam Khan, Najeeba Mohammed Altaf, 2025-08-28 This book considers how development cooperation principles and practices can be made more inclusive and impactful Amplifying voices from across the global south the book combines key thematic discussions with new case studies spanning three continents and three key sectors agriculture education and social protection Global governance is at a crossroads and modalities of foreign aid delivery are under stress as international development cooperation continues to lose political traction in provider countries Presenting a novel and nuanced understanding of the dynamics shaping the global development landscape this book considers the strategic issues influencing development partnerships and outcomes It consolidates cross country policy insights from the global south based on sectoral experiences shaped by contextual realities The authors adapt the Moderator Mediator framework as a means of examining the contextual factors shaping development partnerships and consequently leading to successful development outcomes in a specific sector at the country level This book holds special relevance in the current political climate where the future of development financing is increasingly contested Global development researchers and students will benefit from the book s ingenious blending of sector specific insights and broader discussions of the themes underpinning contemporary development cooperation debates Accountability for Mass Starvation Bridget Conley, Alex de Waal, Catriona Murdoch, Wayne Jordash QC, 2022-09-01 Famine is an age old scourge that almost disappeared in our lifetime Between 2000 and 2011 there were no famines and deaths in humanitarian emergencies were much reduced The humanitarian agenda was ascendant Then in 2017 the United Nations identified four situations that threatened famine or breached that threshold in north eastern Nigeria Somalia South Sudan and Yemen Today this list is longer Each of these famines is the result of military actions and exclusionary authoritarian politics conducted without regard to the wellbeing or even the survival of people Violations of international law including blockading ports attacks on health facilities violence against humanitarian workers and obstruction of relief aid are carried out with renewed impunity Yet there is an array of legal offenses ranging from war crimes and crimes against humanity to genocide available to a prosecutor to hold individuals to account for the deliberate starvation of civilians However there has been a dearth of investigations and accountability for those violating international law The reasons for this neglect and the gaps between the black letter law and practice are explored in this timely volume It provides a comprehensive overview of the key themes and cases required to catalyze a new approach to understanding the law as it relates to starvation It also illustrates the complications of historical and ongoing situations where starvation is used as a weapon of war and provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions journalistic reporting and memorialization of famine

Somalis Abroad ,2017-05-12 Drawing on a wealth of ethnographic detail Stephanie Bjork offers the first study on the messy role of clan or tribe in the Somali diaspora and the only study on the subject to include women s perspectives Somalis Abroad illuminates the ways clan is contested alongside ideas of autonomy and gender equality challenged by affinities towards others with similar migration experiences transformed because of geographical separation from family members and leveraged by individuals for cultural capital Challenging prevailing views in the field Bjork argues that clan informed practices influence everything from asylum decisions to managing money The practices also become a pattern that structures important relationships via constant and unwitting effort

Our Tribal Future David R Samson,2023-09-21 An astounding and inspiring look at the science behind tribalism and how we can learn to harness this powerful instinct to improve the world around us What do you think of when you hear the word tribalism For many it conjures images of bigotry xenophobia and sectarian violence Others may envision their own tribe family friends and the bonds of loyalty that keep them together Tribalism is one of the most complex and ancient evolutionary forces it gave us the capacity for co operation and competition and allowed us to navigate increasingly complex social landscapes It is so powerful that it is a better predictor of our behaviour than race class gender or religion But in our vast modern world has this blessing become a curse Our Tribal Future explores a central paradox of our species how altruism community kindness and genocide are all driven by the same core adaptation Evolutionary anthropologist David R Samson engages with cutting edge science and philosophy as well as his own field research with small scale societies and wild chimpanzees to explain the science ethics and history of tribalism in compelling and accessible terms This bold and brilliant book reveals provocative truths about our nature Readers will discover that tribalism cannot and should not be eliminated entirely to do so would be to destroy what makes us human But is it possible to channel the best of this instinct to enrich our lives while containing the worst of its dangers New Themes in Institutional Analysis Georg Krücken,Carmelo Mazza,Renate E. Meyer,Peter Walgenbach,2017-08-25 Institutional theory has become one of the dominant organizational approaches in recent decades Its roots can be traced to Europe and an important intellectual objective of this book is to examine North American theory strands and reconnect them with European research traditions In addition this book focuses on how organizations and individuals handle heterogeneous and challenging social conditions which are subsequently reflected in various forms of change Taking African Cartoons Seriously Peter Limb,Tejumola Olaniyan,2018-10-01 Cartoonists make us laugh and think by caricaturing daily events and politics The essays interviews and cartoons presented in this innovative book vividly demonstrate the rich diversity of cartooning across Africa and highlight issues facing its cartoonists today such as sociopolitical trends censorship and use of new technologies Celebrated African cartoonists including Zapiro of South Africa Gado of Kenya and Asukwo of Nigeria join top scholars and a new generation of scholar cartoonists from the fields of literature comic studies and fine arts animation studies social sciences and history to take the analysis of African cartooning forward Taking African Cartoons Seriously presents critical thematic studies to chart new approaches to how African cartoonists trade in fun irony and satire The book brings together the traditional press editorial cartoon with rapidly diverging subgenres of the art in the graphic novel and animation and applications on social media Interviews with bold and successful cartoonists provide insights into their work their humor and the dilemmas they face This book will delight and inform readers from all backgrounds providing a highly readable and visual introduction to key cartoonists and styles as well as critical engagement with current themes to show where African political cartooning is going and why
