

La boulodiversité

Ensemble, vers l'extermination du chômage

Le chômage de masse n'est pas une fatalité, c'est un choix collectif sur lequel nous pouvons revenir.

La France est riche de compétences et d'énergies disponibles, nos besoins mal satisfaits sont innombrables, les nouveaux métiers foisonnent : un grand pays comme le nôtre peut se redresser en quelques courtes années. Le monde est en chantier, nous pouvons décider de nous appuyer sur la mutation au lieu de consacrer nos forces à lutter contre elle.

Ce livre propose de tourner le dos à la crise de l'emploi, il nous entraîne vers la métamorphose du travail. Partant d'une analyse menée au plus près des réalités du terrain, il ouvre des pistes propices à l'aménagement de la transition vers des logiques de production adaptées aux réalités contemporaines. Sachons pourtant que cette métamorphose ne nous sera pas octroyée, elle n'évoluera harmonieusement que si, tous ensemble, nous regardons l'avenir comme une promesse, comme un nouvel espace à conquérir. C'est à ce prix que nous deviendrons capables d'encourager les bonnes pratiques au lieu de les étouffer.

Préface de Jean-Paul Delavoye, Président du Cese.

Après avoir enseigné la philosophie puis la psychologie sociale, Françoise Frach crée en 1972 un institut d'études d'opinion qu'elle dirigera pendant plus de trente ans. Actuellement membre du Conseil Économique, Social et Environnemental dont elle a été vice-présidente entre décembre 2010 et décembre 2013.
