 Asian Regionalism From a Legal Perspective is unique in synthesizing legal economic and political analyses In the first part the book investigates the current features of regionalism from a comparative perspective looking at economic and currency cooperation and comparing Asian regionalism with Europe and Latin America In the second part the contributors go on to look at the present legal features of regionalism covering institutional frameworks trade diversity and regional integration
 The third part of the book is truly unique in proposing an essential groundwork for the institutionalisation of an East Asian Community It conceives a draft East Asian Charter an essential document that distils what East Asian nations have achieved and also includes integral principles and fundamental rules for future cooperation among countries and peoples in the region
 This book will be of interest to graduates and academics interested in regionalism international relations international law
