The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theologies M. Brett,J.

Havea,2014-12-17 Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theology focuses on what postcolonial theologies look like in colonial contexts particularly in dialogue with the First Nations Peoples in Australia and the Asia Pacific The contributors have roots in the Asia Pacific but the struggles theologies and concerns they address are shared across the seas Liturgy in

Postcolonial Perspectives C. Carvalhaes,2015-06-10 This book brings Christian Jewish and Muslim scholars from different fields of knowledge and many places across the globe to introduce expand the dialogue between the field of liturgy and postcolonial decolonial thinking Connecting main themes in both fields this book shows what is at stake in this dialectical scholarship History Below the Global Lorenzo Kamel,2024-04-02 History Below the Global aims to foster an entangled knowledge of global history and to place others at the centre stage to better understand the fluid world which we inhabit Relying on primary sources in seven languages and books written by hundreds of African Asian Middle Eastern and South American scholars Lorenzo Kamel examines the colonality of power in historical research and sheds light on the largely neglected roles of the others and their modernities in history The book provides three elements combined Firstly a thorough analysis of the process of accumulation knowledge piece by piece which underpins some of the major achievements in human history Secondly a view on pre colonial perspectives and the process through which the latter have been swallowed up by Eurocentric and solipsistic perceptions Lastly a study of the roots and outcomes of colonialisms and their echoes in our present These three elements are addressed by combining multiple methodologies and approaches in the awareness that the history analysed as well as the historiographical trajectories that underlie it are ultimately inter penetrable as well as themselves the result of a process of accumulation History Below the Global challenges the view that first and foremost the West for bad and for good is and was the centre the proactive actor which did and undid This volume will be of value to all those interested in global history the history of colonialism post colonial studies modern and contemporary history
