Aluya D. B. A.,Joseph U. Aluya,Ossian L. Garraway D. B. A.,Ossian L. Garraway,2010 In this book the global implications of solar wind or hybrid as an alternative energy is critically examined and explained In Brazil China Canada Cuban Germany Nigeria Swiss and the United States leadership styles affect finding alternative sources of energy that will complement fossil fuels hydro or nuclear power supply We explain contrast and compare various global leadership perspectives as its affect alternative energy sources Leadership styles and political considerations become the trajectories in the introduction of innovative disruptive technologies Seven billion people worldwide have inadequate supply of energy United Nations 2010 In developing nations hydropower supply has resulted in consistent brown outs In developed nations the lack of clean nuclear power raises safety concerns In rural areas in developed nations fossil fuels hydropower and nuclear power have not met the demand for energy supply Jeter 2004 Ogden 1999 The background of solar wind and nanotechnologies are congruently explained Nanotechnology is introduced and elements within the innovative systems are considered disruptive technologies Nanotechnology as a disruptive technology includes capability of self replicating machines robots and the production of molecular sized computers Merkle 2009 Uldrich 2006 Nanotechnology as a disruptive technology also has the capacity to improve human lives globally Hypothesis deduced from this study revealed that solar wind or hybrid could not replace hydropower or nuclear power rather should complement the existing energy supply Solar wind or hybrid should however disrupt the existing systems to the point of setting new paradigm to shifting new frontiers in global mindset and reasoning Martins Ruther Pereira Abreu 2008 Situational leadership style trumps other form of leadership styles in the implementations of alternative energy and while introducing nanotech from proposal to fruition We conclude this study by explaining factors embedded in the decision making processes of introducing the benefits of alternative energy globally

Consumer Reports New Car Buying Guide, 2003-04 Consumer Reports,2003-06 This comprehensive guide updated for the 2003 model year provides buyers with all the information they need to buy any new vehicle

The Investor's Guide to the Energy Revolution Tamás Farkas,2008-04-10 This book is for two types of people First it s for all those who are interested in today s energy issues Second for those who consider investing in the energy industry The author an independent thinker and experienced international investor explains in a clear concise way the role of the different energy sources in the developed societies and why an Energy Revolution is inevitable The book presents different alternatives for the challenges ahead and assesses their long term viability with full pragmatism The author provides a unique investment approach and shows with the aid of many real life examples how to use it for making important investment decisions with confidence You will also learn how to invest successfully during recessions and find recession proof energy stocks Whether you are a new or an experienced investor or just curious about oil and energy you will learn a great deal from this book

Consumer Tribes Avi Shankar,Bernard Cova,Robert Kozinets,2012-06-25 Marketing and consumer research has traditionally conceptualized consumers as individuals who exercise choice in the marketplace as individuals not as a class or a group However an important new perspective is now emerging that rejects the individualistic view and focuses on the reality that human life is essentially social and that who we are is an inherently social phenomenon It is the tribus the many little groups we belong to that are fundamental to our experience of life Tribal Marketing shows that it is not individual consumption of products that defines our lives but rather that this activity actually facilitates meaningful social relationships The social links social relationships are more important than the things brands etc The aim of this book is therefore to offer a systematic overview of the area that has been defined as cultures of consumption consumption microcultures brand cultures brand tribes and brand communities It is though these that students of marketing and marketing practitioners can begin to genuinely understand the real drivers of consumer behaviour It will be essential to everyone who needs to understand the new paradigm in consumer research brand management and communications management Environmental Advertising in China and the USA Xinghua Li,2016-05-05 Since the late 1980s green consumerism has been hailed in the West as an efficient solution to environmental problems However Chinese consumers have been slow to warm up to eco friendly products Consumers prefer SUVs to hybrid cars health supplements and snake oil medicines to organic foods and eco fashion is still secluded in high end designer studios These choices contradict the findings of many sustainable lifestyle surveys that claim to register a rising desire for green products among the Chinese This book examines the psycho cultural differences that disrupt the translation of eco friendly appeals to China by analyzing environmental advertising It explores the different notions of green the structures of desire that underlies the advertisements and how they are shaped by ideological cultural and historical differences Rather than arguing the superiority of the American or Chinese version of green consumerism the book interrogates the role of advertising in the global spread of Western ideologies and explores the possibilities for consumers to resist transnational corporate hegemony in the green movement This book fills an important gap in the critical scholarship on green marketing and should be of interest to students and scholars of environment studies green advertising and marketing environmental communication and media studies China studies and environmental sociology ethics and cultural studies
