La Domme Three Studies In Female Authority:

Female Authority and Holiness in Early and Medieval Christianity Maria Dell'Isola, 2025-05-06 This collective volume investigates the connection between women's holiness and the notion of time from a diachronic perspective. By looking at temporality as intertwined with the construction of social and gendered roles, the volume analyses narratives related to the varying articulation of female authority considered against the wider background of Christian ideals of holiness between early Christianity and Byzantium.

Tyranny and Music Joseph E. Morgan, Gregory N. Reish, 2017-12-26 Tyranny and Music is an edited collection of essays that explore how musical artists respond to cruel or oppressive governments and ruling regimes. Its primary strength and unique quality lies in its diversity, presenting a postmodern collage of scholarship that reaches across the divides of classical, popular, and traditional musics, just as it connects musical resistance of the past with the present and the near Western with the far non-Western. Contemporary topics include Choson's analysis of blood diamonds in the Sierra Leonean Civil War and collective memory in the Persian Gulf War songs. Historical topics include the image of John Wilkes Booth in the popular imagination, censorship in the Soviet Union, Victor Ullman's song setting at Terezin, artistic restrictions in Maoist China, anti-inquisition propaganda in the outbreak of the Dutch revolt, Revolutionary Era Anthems in the United States, and much more. These essays, while remarkable in their scholarly erudition, also provide intimate glimpses of the resiliency of the individual artist. From Cherine Amr's Heavy Metal resistance to the Muslim Brotherhood to Hanns Eisler's battle with the United States House on Un-American Activities Committee, stories of human struggle and perseverance arise from each of these narratives.

Propheying Daughters Chanta M. Haywood, 2003-05-12 In nineteenth-century America, many black women left their homes, their husbands, and their children to spread the Word of God. Descendants of slaves or former slave girls themselves, they traveled all over the country, even abroad, preaching to audiences composed of various races, denominations, sexes, and classes, offering their own interpretations of the Bible. When they were denied the pulpit because of their sex, they preached in tents, bush clearings, meeting halls, private homes, and other spaces. They dealt with domestic ideologies that positioned them as subservient in the home and with racist ideologies that positioned them as naturally inferior to whites. They also faced legalities restricting blacks socially and physically and the socioeconomic reality of often being part of a large body of unskilled laborers. Jarena Lee, Julia Foote, Maria Stewart, and Frances Gaudet were four women preachers who endured such hardships because of their religious convictions. Often quoting from the scripture, they insisted that they were indeed prophesying daughters whom God called upon to preach. Significantly, many of these women preachers wrote autobiographies in which they present images of assertive, progressive, pious women, steadfast and unmovable in their religious beliefs and bold in voicing their concerns about the moral standing of their race and society at large. Chanta M. Haywood examines these autobiographies to provide new insight into the nature of prophesying, offering an alternative approach to literature with strong religious imagery. She analyzes how these four women employed rhetorical and political devices in their narratives using religious discourse to deconstruct race class and gender issues of the nineteenth century By exploring how religious beliefs become an avenue for creating alternative ideologies Prophesying Daughters will appeal to students and scholars of African American literature women s studies and religious studies The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible Susanne Scholz,2020-10-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible brings together 37 essential essays written by leading international scholars examining crucial points of analysis within the field of feminist Hebrew Bible studies Organized into four major areas globalization neoliberalism media and intersectionality the essays collectively provide vibrant relevant and innovative contributions to the field The topics of analysis focus heavily on gender and queer identity with essays touching on African Korean and European feminist hermeneutics womanist and interreligious readings ecofeminist and animal biblical studies migration biblical studies the role of gender binary voices in evangelical egalitarian approaches and the examination of scripture in light of trans women s voices The volume also includes essays examining the Old Testament as recited in music literature film and video games The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Approaches to the Hebrew Bible charts a culturally hermeneutically and exegetically cutting edge path for the ongoing development of biblical studies grounded in feminist womanist gender and queer perspectives Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture ,2012-05-07 These volumes propose a renewed way of framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women Today s standard division of artist from patron is not seen in medieval inscriptions on paintings metalwork embroideries or buildings where the most common verb is made fecit At times this denotes the individual whose hands produced the work but it can equally refer to the person whose donation made the undertaking possible Here twenty four scholars examine secular and religious art from across medieval Europe to demonstrate that a range of studies is of interest not just for a particular time and place but because from this range overall conclusions can be drawn for the question of medieval art history as a whole Contributors are Mickey Abel Glaire D Anderson Jane L Carroll Nicola Coldstream Mar a Elena D ez Jorge Jaroslav Folda Alexandra Gajewski Loveday Lewes Gee Melissa R Katz Katrin Kogman Appel Pierre Alain Mariaux Therese Martin Eileen McKiernan Gonz lez Rachel Moss Jenifer N Ghr daigh Felipe Pereda Annie Renoux Ana Maria S A Rodrigues Jane Tibbetts Schulenburg Stefanie Seeberg Miriam Shadis Ellen Shortell Loretta Vandi and Nancy L Wicker American Sociological Review ,1936 Includes sections Book reviews and Periodical literature The Ashgate Research Companion to Women and Gender in Early Modern Europe Jane Couchman,2016-03-23 Over the past three decades scholars have transformed the study of women and gender in early modern Europe This Ashgate Research Companion presents an authoritative review of the current research on women and gender in early modern Europe from a multi disciplinary perspective The authors examine women s lives ideologies of gender and the differences between ideology and reality through the recent research across many disciplines including history
