How French Moderns Think Frédéric Keck, 2024-04-17

This book traces the contributions of the Lvy Bruhl family to social and political thought and expertise in 20th century France shaping the anticipation of economic and health crises

How French Moderns Think tells the story of the French sociological tradition through four generations of the Lvy Bruhl family

Lucien who founded the Institute of Ethnology at the University of Paris his son Henri who founded the Institute of Roman Law his grandson Raymond who took part in the creation of the National Institute of Statistics and Economic Studies and his great grandson Daniel a vaccine specialist at the Institute of Public Health

This family history casts a new light on the philosophical debates about primitive mentality and the savage mind

By drawing on the expert knowledge inherent in this family genealogy the articulation between the logical and the pre logical is not a cognitive question but rather a problem of anticipating unpredictable events

By relating Lvy Bruhl's engagements from the Dreyfus Affair to the Minister of Armaments during the First World War Keck narrates the confrontation of the socialist ideal of justice and truth with the French colonial experience and its transformations in global technologies preparing for pandemics
