La Fillette Aux Yeux De Vie:

Balzac Edgar Saltus, 1884 Fashioning the City Agnès Rocamora, 2009-04-30 While much attention has been paid to the making of Paris in the work of writers and artists little is known about the city as defined and created by the fashion media Filling this gap in studies of the French capital this original and illuminating book focuses on how the French fashion press with its rich conjunction of words and images has been able to construct Paris as a leading world fashion city Based in an original analysis of fashion writing and images in contemporary French fashion magazines and newspapers the book shows how the fashion media have been central to the consecration of the city of Paris on the fashion map as well as its celebration in the collective imaginary Agnes Rocamora explores for example the figures of la Parisienne and la passante the female passer by and the presence of the Eiffel tower in fashion visuals She gives attention to the continuum between the French journalistic discourse and that of cultural forms such as films paintings and literature thus revealing the persistence across texts and time of visions of Paris and shedding light on the production and reproduction of the Paris myth The Art of Urban Living Christian Emden, Catherine Keen, David Midgley, 2006 This volume is based on papers given at the conference Imagining the City held in Cambridge in 2004 Together they examine the city as imagined space and as a matrix for imagined worlds using French German English Italian Russian and North American examples The Love Letters of Honoré de Balzac, 1833-1842 Honoré de Balzac, D. F. Hannigan, 1901 Paris Patrice L. R HIGONNET, 2009-06-30 In an original and evocative journey through modern Paris from the mid eighteenth century to World War II Patrice Higonnet offers a delightful cultural portrait of a multifaceted continually changing city In examining the myths and countermyths of Paris that have been created and re created over time Higonnet reveals a magical urban alchemy in which each era absorbs the myths and perceptions of Paris past adapts them to the cultural imperatives of its own time and feeds them back into the city creating a new environment Paris was central to the modern world in ways internal and external genuine and imagined progressive and decadent Higonnet explores Paris as the capital of revolution science empire literature and art describing such incarnations as Belle Epoque Paris the Commune the surrealists city and Paris as viewed through American eyes He also evokes the more visceral Paris of alienation crime material excess and sensual pleasure Insightful informative and gracefully written Paris illuminates the intersection of collective and individual imaginations in a perpetually shifting urban dynamic In describing his Paris of the real and of the imagination Higonnet sheds brilliant new light on this endlessly intriguing city The Love Letters (1833-1842) Honoré de Balzac, D.
